The Sabbath-School Library

FOR many years we have been identified with the literature of the Sabbath School, and we have constantly kept ourselves in touch with the ever-widening demand for reading matter commensurate with the marvellous intellectual development of the modern school. The Sabbath School Library that many of us can easily recall was but a feeble instrumentality, with its shelves sparsely stocked with books, the best of which too often were neither profitable nor entertaining for its young readers. This condition of affairs has long been a matter of history, and the Library of today is, or should be, abundantly able to meet the exacting needs of the alert young minds that patronize it. We offer expert services in connection with the Sabbath School Library, and invite correspondence.

We have a Catalogue of 3,000 volumes which we send free upon application. If your Library needs replenishing don't forget to write us for Catalogues, terms, etc.

The New Testament in Modern Speech.

An idiomatic Translation into everyday English from the text of the Resultant Greek Testament, by the late R. F. WEYMOUTH, M.A., D.Lit., Fellow of University College, London. Edited and partly Revised by E. HAMPTON-COOK, M.A.

It will come as a new revelation to most readers. In the interests of Christian knowledge and of Christian life, I wish the work every success. I should be glad to learn that there was a copy of it in every home, and that it, or some similar work was used at Family Prayer, especially in the case of the Epistles, which in many passages are all but unintelligible in the Authorized and Revised Versions.—Rev. R. H. CHARLES, D.D., Dublin.
