"It's a Good School"

CHARACTER has been defined as the sum of all one's experiences. How necessary, then, that in the formative period of boyhood those experiences should be such as to make for a strong, trustworthy, and efficient manhood.

Western Canada College for Boys, Calgary. 16th Year

This College is a place where a lad's daily experiences are of the kind that make for discipline in the boy and work from the boy. Here he is required to be neat, orderly, "on time" many times a day, courteous in speech and manner. Clean and dependable character is this College's chief aim.
