

Letters to the Editor.

DEAR SIR,—In view of the severe accident which befel Chas. Wegmiller, who is a stranger in our midst, and having no relatives in this country and of whom his employer said "I never had a better boy in my service," I think we should show our sympathy in a tangible way. A little from each would not be missed by us, and would assist in tiding him over a probably protracted illness. James 2; 15-16. Any contribution left with Mr. C. Liesemer or the undersigned will be properly applied.

J. H. MOORE.

Christian Endeavor.

Christian Endeavor society met in the basement of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday night. The president J. H. Moore is the chair. The topic for the evening was "The Ten Commandments in our lives." Mrs. Butchart opened the subject by delivering a carefully prepared comment on the lesson. It being the first meeting of the month (consecration meeting) the roll was called out and all the active member present answered to their names by reading verses of scriptures bearing on the subject or making some remarks. The roll of the associate members was also called and all present answered to their names. The attendance was not so large as usual but those present entered heartily into the discussion of the topic, and a very pleasant and profitable meeting was the result. The lesson read was Mark 12: 28-32, containing our Saviour's summary of the ten commandments. To love the Lord with all the heart, soul, mind and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves.

It was proved from scripture that the law being weak through the flesh could not give spiritual life to any son of Adam. No man could so keep the law as to have a claim to eternal life. But Jesus Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. In order to the right keeping of the commandments we must begin right by coming to God through Jesus Christ and receive the new heart and the right, then the righteousness of the law will be fulfilled in all who walk not after the flesh but after the spirit.

The topic for next meeting will be "For Christ and the church," Matt. 16: 13-20. Mr. McNamara will be the leader.

There was a marked improvement last Tuesday evening in regard to the members taking their seats to the front. The interest manifested in the discussion of the topic was much greater. Still there is room for greater improvement. Some of our young men would be less tempted to levity if moved forward from the back seats.

A remarkable achievement in barn raising is recorded in the Berlin News. A large barn belonging to Mr. Knarr, who lives near Rosedale, was destroyed by fire a short time ago. On the 10th inst. about 49 neighbors went into the woods and swamps to get out timber to rebuild. On the 14th the timber was all on the ground and on the 19th the barn was roofed and entirely enclosed. This is a record of quick work which will be hard to beat. It also shows that the generous and neighborly old substitute the "bee" has not become ob-

HORSESHOER AND GENERAL BLACKSMITH,
Shop opposite the Bank, mildmay, Ont.

Having had a long experience both in Canada and the United States, I am confident I can give satisfaction in every line of my trade. My most careful attention given to shoeing especially to horses with bad feet.

I also have a process and the tools for welding new steel plates on the cultivator teeth of Seed Drills, or I can sharpen the old ones (if they are not worn back too far) without drawing out the iron part, which leaves a solid steel point, the same as when new.

Charges low. Give me a call and be convinced.
