Lesson I.-First Quarter, For Jan. 3, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Judg. 1i, 7-19. Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text. Hos. xiv. 4-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The lessons of this year begin with five studies in the book of Judges, showing the failure of Israel. God's intervention and man's faithlessness. Every deliverer whom God raised up was in some sense suggestive of the great Deliverer, the Lord Jesus Christ, and each one wrought in the power of the Holy Spirit. Joshua tells of the entrance of Israel into the promised land and its subjugation and division among the tribes, ending with Joshua's farewell appeal to Israel to fear the Lord and serve Him in sincerity and in truth and the determination of the people so to do (Josh, xxiv, 14, 24). One of his grandest farewell words was when he reminded the people that not one thing had failed of all the good things which the Lord had spoken (Josh. xxiii, 14). See the same blessed testimony in I Kings, viii, 56, and let each one lay it to heart for his own special comfort.

The section assigned us for this day's lesson is a concise epitome of the book of Judges, telling of Israel's persistent turning away from God and of His great patience with them. David summarized the record in these words: "Many times did He deliver them, but they provoked Him with their counsel and were brought low for their iniquity. Nevertheless He regarded their affliction when He heard their cry" (I's. cvi, 43, 44; lxxviii, 38). Paul summarized Joshua and Judges in these words: "When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan He divided their land to them by lot. And after that He gave unto them judges about the space of 450 years until Samuel the prophet (Acts xiii, 19, 20). The first chapter of Judges tells how tribe after tribe had failed to drive out the people of the land as they had been commanded, and our lesson chapter opens with the Lord's reproof for this sin, saying: "Ye have not obeyed my Why have ye done this? voice.

Our lesson begins by telling us tha while Joshua lived and also during the Hfetime of the elders that outlived Joshua the people served the Lord. The Lord and even one man can lead a host of people in the right direction. Think of the worldwide testimony to cially hold me are "Joshua the servant of the Lord" and "The people served the Lord" and make me wish to appropriate more fully the beautiful heart words "Whose I am and whom I serve" words "Whose I am and whom I serve" (Acts xxvii, 23). Joshua ends with the Durke of the Cabinet of two other bodies, those of the members of the Cabinet and the Cabinet and the Prophet Daniel of the World. You know the Driver of the World. You know the Britannian the World of the W gar, the son of Aaron.

Bodies are buried, but people go on living better without them (if redeembodies. How pitiful to read of "a generation which knew not the Lord" (verse 10), and they the descendants of a people for whom the Lord wrought nation! They forsook the Lord God and worshiped the idols of the nations which should have been destroyed by gratulations to the President. them, for the Lord had said, "Thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, * * * a special people unto Himself above all people that are upon the face of the earth" (Deut. vii, 2-6). the President. Such sowing brings sad reaping according to lesson verses 14, 15; chapter following of similar turnings away from God. A very odd thumbs and toes story of sowing and reaping is found in chapter. i, 6, 7. The principle always stands, "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" (Gal. vi. 7). Nevertheless the Lord raised up judges, who delivered them, for the Lord was with the judge (verses 16, 18; chapter iii, 9, 15). We should think that the Lord would grow weary of forgiving and delivering a people whom He knew would after a time commit the same sins again, but He is the same Lord who told Peter to forgive until seventy times seven, or until the end of Daniel's seventysevens, which means the coming of the kingdom. They would not hearken unto their judges; they turned quickly out of the way; they ceased not from their own doings nor from their stubborn way (verses 17, 19). Long afterward it was written of them, "Their doings will not suffer them to turn unto their God"

(Hos. v, 4, margin). In the days of their kings they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words and misused His prophets (II Chron. xxxvi, /16), and when the Messiah came in the fullness of time they crucified Him. Yet He said: "How often would I, * * * but ye would not." "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself, but in Me is thine help." "I will bear their backsliding; I will love them free | departed from the army front. y" (Matt. xxiii, 37; Hos. xiii, 9; xiv, 4).
