Democrats, 140 Republicans, 1 Greenback Democrat, and 1 Greenback Republican.

× Mrs. Douglass Miller, of Kingston, was knocked down by a pet ram and butted and injured so much that she may not recover.

A man named McCaffrey, his wife and seven children, were found dying from starvation in a shanty in Brooklyn on Monday.

An Order-in-Council declares that the Temperance Act shall come into force in Stanstead after the expiry of the present licenses.

An outbreak of smallpox has occurred in Seymour township, East Northumberland, four cases existing in one family. The disease is of a mild type.

Dr. John Maxwell, who poisoned his three children at Springfield, O., last November, hanged himself in the Springfield jail last Tuesday. He was insane.

× A man named W. Grant put up at a hotel in North Augusta last week, and shortly after committed suicide by hanging himself from the bannister.
He had been drinking.

Reports from the Montana Stock Ranges are most discouraging. The snow is two feet deep on the level, and the cattle starving. Many fine herds will be annihilated if the cold snap is repeated.

It is stated on reliable authority the bodies of fourteen railway laborers have been found frozen near Niobrara, Neb. The men are supposed to have perished during the recent severe blizzard.

During the year just closed, 180 men were lynched in the United States. Last year there were 175.
Montana gave the largest number, 53;
Mississippi 14, Colorado 13, Texas 12, Louisiana 11 and Dakota 10.

cholera in Italy, from the outbreak in July to Nov. 9th.

It is rumored that Mr. Gladstone will retire from public life at the close of the present session of Parliament.

At a meeting in Kingston a resolution was adopted urging the Provincial Government to establish an agricultural college in Eastern Ontario.

A Winnipeg telegram says: Cool from Crowfoot Crossing, tested on Saturday at the C. P. R. Yards, proved far more successful than was at first supposed.

During one of the late Orange demonstrations at Harbor Grace, an Orangeman discharged his gun close to the ear of Rev. Dr. McDonald, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Harbor Grace. By a quick side-motion of his head he escaped the charge.

A mob of 500 men attacked the Salvation Army meeting Sunday night at Dayton, Ohio, and battered down the doors of the hall. The police finally drove the mob off. There was also a disturbance in the hall, but the police declined to interfere.

Minister of Agriculture. Diseased animals must be slaughtered by the corporation and the owner compensated.

In May last, Fred H. Hopkins went to Batavia, N. Y., from Port Hope, taking with him $6,000 left him by his father. Monday morning before daylight he let his baggage down from a fourth-storey window of the Washburn House, Batavia, with a cord, and departed, leaving a bill of $60. He had spent the whole of his inheritance in riotous living, and pawned his gold watch for $15 with which to get out of town.

Wm. Long, of Tilsonburg, having purchased a pig from a Mr. North, near Courtland, went for it on New Year's Day, when a dispute arose between them about the Price, Long having previously paid for the pig.
North demanded another dollar, and this Long refused and told his boy to drive on, when North procured a gun and told him to stop or he would shoot. The threat was not heeded, when North fired, dangerously wounding Long, filing his hip with shot.
