CITY ITEMS

Camp Scotia, S.O.S.
Owing to bad weather conditions, the attendance of members on Thursday evening was less than usual. One new member was initiated and Bro. Rev. J. W. Gordon and A. McAuley were duly installed chaplain and treasurer respectively. Great interest was taken in the coming Burn's night celebration on Jan. 24th. A variety of attractive program has been arranged and all other arrangements are in most satisfactory shape. Additional interest will be given to the event by the presence of Grand Chief Mearns of Toronto, who will occupy the chair. Notice has been left, in order to provide an entertainment full of interest and enjoyment to all, and will fittingly honor the anniversary of Scotland's national poet, the immortal memory of Burns.

Falkland Farmers' Club
The Farmers' Club held their first meeting of the new year on Tuesday evening, January 14th, at the home of Mr. John McGill. About thirty members were present and all spent a most enjoyable and profitable evening. A very interesting address on agricultural co-operation was given by Mr. F. C. Beaupre, assistant district representative of the County of Brant. He gave an account of the growth of the movement in Denmark and told of the magnificent results which it had produced in that country. He also told how far the movement had proceeded in England, United States and Canada. At the close of the meeting, the Women's Institute joined the club and a short but excellent program of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered by Miss Scott of Paris, and Mr. H. Tennant. The next meeting will be held on the evening of Jan. 28th, at the home of Mr. Wm. Tennant, when there will be a debate viz: "Resolved that specialized farming offers greater profit than mixed farming." All are cordially invited to attend.
