THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 7, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

We understand that the case of Curcum v. Stone, recently tried before Judge Chipman, has been decided in favor of the defendant.

Rev. Mr. Laflamme, returned missionary, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday evening last. His sermon was much enjoyed.

As a result of trouble among the men on the new dyke at Canning about fifty laborers have been brought this week from Memramcook to carry on the work.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Colchester Sun, issues this week a handsome supplement containing well written descriptions, fully illustrated, of that progressive town.

Rev. A. C. Borden will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening. This will be Mr. Borden's last Sunday in Nova Scotia, previous to his departure for Japan. He leaves on Wednesday next.

Grand discount sale at the Glasgow House now on. Call and get bargains in all Summer Goods.

Three of the four candidates for Kentville Academy who went up for Grade A certificates, viz: Louis F. Newcombe and Miss Ethylberta Marchant, of Sheffield's Mills, and Fred H. Spinney, of Melvern Square, were successful.

The D. A. R. ran special excursion trains both ways between Yarmouth and Halifax on Sunday, and the Yarmouth S. S. Co. ran a steamer to make connection with them, with a view to relieving the pressure on regular service caused by the crowds returning from the Halifax carnival.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of this town have organized a society for girls employed in the town at which they are taught sewing and other useful work. The society meets one evening each week, the meetings being held at the homes of the ladies who have the work in hand.

To Let.—The Store lately occupied by myself. Possession given at once. Apply to R. E. Harris.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance is to meet in this town next week, beginning at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Arrangements are being made for holding a public meeting in Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, at which it is expected addresses will be given by prominent men in the Order.

The Dry Goods business of the late Mr. I. Fred Carver, which has been managed for Mrs. Carver by Mr. John Chisholm, for a little over a year, will now be taken charge of by Mr. John W. Blanchard, whose tender for the stock has been accepted. Mr. Blanchard has been for the last five years in the large dry goods establishment of McCurdy & Co., Antigonish.—Hants Journal.

Arrangements are being made by the Exhibition Association of St. John to secure attractions of a high character for the coming Exhibition. Fireworks of a superior character will be exhibited at evening if weather permits. The hall in the Agricultural Building will be occupied every afternoon and evening by a splendid Variety Company, whose performance must secure crowded houses. A number of interesting and attractive outdoor performances are receiving the attention of the committee.

Completed arrangements for the exhibition applications with respect to property and price will close.

Mr. Shaffer, Solicitor, Kentville, N. S.
