

Lord Roberts' Cure For Hooliganism

(From the London Daily Mail)
 Lord Roberts' cure for hooliganism is military training for lads after they had left school. Presenting the prizes to the City of London Schoolboys' Club ("Lord Roberts' boys") the veteran general said that we had compulsory education up to the age of twelve or fourteen, according to the boys own intelligence; but after that the lad was cast adrift. Yet that was the very time the boy wanted looking after. If a boy of sixteen or eighteen was left to make his own way, he got into bad company and bad habits, most probably. Lord Roberts added: "If we expect to have men worthy of our great nation, men fit to do the great deeds which our ancestors have done, we must commence by taking them in hand when boys. Once teach them habits of discipline, of order, of truthfulness, of cleanliness, of being obedient and respectful to their superiors, kind and considerate to their inferiors—if we do that we shall have men, and we shall be proud of ourselves."

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

Every lessee of coal mining rights which are not being operated shall furnish the district agent of Dominion Lands with a sworn statement to that effect at least once in each year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
