UNEAVENLY FATE OF RUSSIAN JEWS

Forced to Do All Forms of Dirty Labor and Used With Brutality

London, Oct. 1.—The fate of the Jews in Russia is anything but an enviable one, says an article in the current number of the Jewish Bulletin.

According to the writer, 98 per cent. of the forced laborers in Kharkov are Jews, who are treated brutally. The Gentiles about them are coming to regard them as a caste, and they are shot at least as freely as other Russians for counter revolutionary activity.

Before the war, the article explains, about 66 per cent. of the Jews in Russia were engaged in commerce, and most of the remainder were artisans or factory workers. When the soviet government closed down private commerce as being tainted with capitalism, most of the Jews lost their livelihood. Most of the anti-Jewish Russians who were likewise made destitute turned to farm labor and have been able to scrape along, but Russian villagers, steeped in centuries of anti-semitism, would not tolerate Jewish settlers among them.

While the soviet government barred actual pogroms, it has not insisted on access to the land being given to the Jewish traders whom it dislodged from their counting-houses, says the writer, so when forced labor came in last March, a very large number of Jews were visibly "unproductive persons," and ripe for industrial conscription, or for death if they objected.

"Almost all the Jews were entered as 'of no occupation,' irrespective of whether they knew a trade or not," says the writer in the Bulletin. "A terrible hunt began for the Jewish masses by Red soldiery, with the willing help of the anti-semites. The Jews were shut up in the 'courtyards' of the labor barracks and had to camp day and night in the open, almost without food. The compulsory work consisted mainly in the heaviest kind of labor, such as road building and the cleaning out of dirty places in town and country."

The Biggest Value in Popular Priced Tailored-to-Measure Suits and Overcoats in the British Empire.

Tailoring Institution Comes
The Greatest Tailoring Values
Ever Offered At Our
No Tax Prices

If we priced our fabrics on the basis of how much price we could get instead of how much value we could give, our Tailored-to-Measure Garments would be much higher than our Standardized No Tax Prices.

We built up our Dominion-wide Tailoring Service and our 27 Quality Tailor Shops on the policy of giving greater value than any other tailor, and this season, as usual, we lead them all by offering better service in our Tailored-to-Measure Clothes for less money than you can buy clothes of equal quality for anywhere, and all at our Standardized No Tax Prices.

Suits and Overcoats Tailored-To-Your-Measure

You Pay No Tax at Our Prices

We depend upon the masses to pay us our profits—not the individual. If ours were a small concern, with an occasional patron drifting in now and then, we would be compelled to exact very much higher prices for our Tailored-to-Measure Clothes. But a contrary situation prevails—ours is a big business working on a profit unbelievably small—a margin that would be entirely out of question were it not for our great volume of business transacted through our 27 Quality Tailor Shops. This is the distinctive feature of our business.

Visit any one of our Tailor Shops, the fabrics will convince you, and we will take your measure.

A young man from Rockland, Me., driving in his car in the Hanovers, saw a sparkle in the road and picked up a diamond ring. A little further on he found a second diamond ring, and then at intervals he picked up a sapphire ring, a diamond brooch, a wrist watch and other valuable jewels, and finally a fancy velvet handbag. Then he met a worried woman in a limousine, looking for the jewelry she had lost.
