The Simp etons, a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will oe begun in the December Number, 1894, and Toontinued to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and The Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Pers nal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, ther Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans, in the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern Papers.

Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will ontain four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will deplic the present life there. Julian Raiph will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number, the first chapters of A Three-Part Novelette, by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.

Send for Illustrated Pro ectus.

The Volumes of the MAGAZINE begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order. Cloth cases, for binding, 50 cents each by mail, postpaid. Title-page and Index sent on amplication.
