

THE UNION ADVOCATE

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER
Established 1867

Published every Tuesday afternoon, at Newcastle, New Brunswick, by the Miramichi Publishing Co., Limited.
Subscription price in Canada and Great Britain $2.00 a year; in the United States and other foreign countries, $2.50. All subscriptions are payable in advance. Single copies 5 cents each.

ADVERTISING RATES
The Rates for Transient Advertising in The Union Advocate, Effective January 1st 1921 are as follows:
Per inch, first insertion .....75c.
Per inch, second insertion .....50c.
Per inch, third insertion .....35c.
Per inch, each subsequent insert .....25c.
Per inch, Card of Thanks .....75c.
Per inch, Engagement Announcement .....75c.
Per line, Reading Notices .....10c.
Births, Deaths or Marriages .....75c.
In Memoriam .....75c.
Poetry, per line .....10c.
Caps and Black Face Readers 15c per line minimum charge 60c.
All prices above are for Cash.
Persons having no account with this paper will oblige by a remittance with the copy of advertisements.
Contract Display Rates on application.

All kinds of Job Printing.
Address all communications to
MIRAMICHI PUBLISHING CO. LTD.
NEWCASTLE, N. B.

TUESDAY, JUNE 12TH 1923

Low Spirited And Depressed

A Condition Due to Poor Blood and Weak Nerves

Nearly all women and most men suffer at times from fits of depression and low spirits, from which they are unable to free themselves. They cannot attend to their duties satisfactorily and are unable to get any pleasure out of life. People who suffer in this way soon lose their energy of mind and body. They lack vitality because their blood is poor and ill-nourished and their nerves are starved in consequence. The only way to obtain new health is by building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The new rich blood made by these pills will carry renewed health and energy to every part of the body. Your appetite will improve, your spirits brighten and you will be endowed with fresh energy and find a new joy in living. Mrs. G. Reid, Napanee Ont. tells of the benefit she found through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on different occasions and cannot emphasize too strongly the benefits derived from them. I was growing nervous, my complexion was becoming sallow and my eyes dull and listless. My vitality was poor and I did not sleep well. I became despondent losing interest in my work, which seemed to tire me so easily. I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking six boxes I began to enjoy life again and looked much brighter and felt happier. My appetite improved. I gained in weight and could sleep without any nervous wakefulness during the night. I also used these pills while nursing my baby and found them a wonderful help both for myself and for making my baby better matred. For these reasons I gladly recommend them to anyone who needs a tonic for the rebuilding of strength and energy."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

EVERETT DOLAN, OF NELSON, OVER STURGEON FALLS

A telegram was received Wednesday by Mr. Wm. Dolan of Nelson, conveying the sad news of the death of his son, Everett. A party of eighteen were boating and the boat was carried over Sturgeon Falls. Sixteen were saved; two are missing. Everett Dolan being one. Dr. R.J. Dolan, a brother of the missing one, is in Ottawa to succeed in the home of the deceased.

Late J. L. Stewart Left An Estate Of $20,000

The Times is informed on reliable authority that the late J. L. Stewart, editor and proprietor of the Chatham World, who died at Melrose, Mass., two months ago, left an estate that will probably exceed $20,000.

The late Commodore Stewart was one of the veteran newspaper men of the province whose writings were widely read throughout New Brunswick particularly on the North Shore where his paper was to be found in almost every home.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Milberton Women's Institute met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J.D. Lyon, with the President in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada," roll call being answered by the payment of the yearly dues.

The principle business before the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, the following officers being elected:

President—Mrs. H. Scott (re-elected)
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. Albert Col-drick.

2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. E.J. Parker

3rd Vice Pres.—Mrs. W. McN. Matthews.

Sec'y Treas.—Mrs. J. D. Lyon, (re-elected)

Directors—Mrs. Wm. Kirk, Mrs. A. E. Fury.

Auditors—Mrs. M. Monahan, Mrs. Randolph Crocker.

Program Com.—Miss Pauline Crocker, Mrs. W. McN. Matthews and Mrs. Burton Vanderbrck.

Mrs. Burton Vanderbeck was appointed the official delegate to the Annual Convention held at Fredericton from June 13th to 17th. Three visitors were present at the meeting and the hostess served ice-cream and cake. A delightful evening was closed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy, three stars of unquestioned popularity. Manager Richards announces that "Clarence" will be the bill at the Opera House, Wednesday and Thursday, and he asserts it is one of the most enjoyable pictures booked by him this season.

"Clarence" is the humorous story of an ex-soldier who drove mules without swearing and who became a good angel in the family of a millionaire whose happiness is being dashed upon the rocks because of their constant lack of harmony and constant bickering. Clarence found the task of reconciling this family nearly as difficult as driving army mules without swearing, but he accomplished the task with the aid of his saxophone, his genial temperament and general tact, so that happiness is the lot of all concerned.

"Clarence" is packed with laughter from beginning to end. In the title role Mr. Reid scores a conspicuous success, while Agnes Ayres and May McEvoy have parts suited to their personalities. There is a supporting cast of rare excellence, and the screen version of Booth Tarkinton's famous play is said to rank as one of the most enjoyable pictures of the year. Kathryn Williams, Adolph Menjou, Edward Martindel, Bertie Johns, Robert Agnew, Dorothy Gordon and Fay Keiso are the supporting cast.

Upwards of 90 priests were gathered for the celebration. Bishop Chaisson accompanied by the priests in procession and headed by acolytes bearing the cross and lighted candles marched from the palace to the Cathedral where a solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated. His Lordship was assisted by Mgr. Dugal, P.A., as assistant priest.

The deacons of the mass were Rev. W.E. Sormany and Rev. J.J. McLaughlin. Rev. A. Comeau and Rev. A. Melanson were deacons of honor and Rev. J.A. Godbout was master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. John Wheaton of Bathurst. The speaker chose St. John's text "Thou hast not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, but thou shouldst go forth and bear fruit, and that thy fruit should remain."

He portrayed the 25 years of eventful service which Bishop Chaisson had spent in the service of his Master and expressed the hope that he might live to celebrate his golden jubilee. He impressed upon his hearers the greatness of the hierarchy and its tremendous responsibilities. In concluding he urged the congregation to pray that their pastor be spared for many more years of faithful service, and that he might wisely guide his flock.

"Clarence," Fine Comedy, Packed With Laughter

A wholesome comedy of family life in America! A picture story that conveys a fine message without being a preachment! That is William de Mille's Paramount