The funeral of the late Ronald Mc-Donald was hold on Thursday morning from the family residence, Chappell street, to Lakeview Cemetery. High mass was chanted at the Church of the Holy Rosary by Reverend Pather Manlev. who also officiated at the graveside. Those who acted as bearers were A. McKeague, Joseph Batile, James Tobin, Thomas Flannery, M. Battle

Mr. Peter Steep left on Tuesday morning for Galt to attend the funeral of Andrew Notan, his niece's husband. Mr. Nolan was a prominent manufacturer of Galt, and was stricken suddenly in the midst of life's activities, though apparently in good health up until that time. Mr. Steep intends to prolong his visit a little longer, calling on relatives at other places before returning to Thorold.

BOXERS FOR SWEDEN

New York. March 15 .- A team of American amateur boxers will tour Scandinavia during the coming spring., taking part in several international boxing tournaments which are being planned for Norway and Sweden. This was decided upon at a meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union held here Thursday. It was decided to send the winners of the 115, 135 and 158 pound classes at the national amateur boxing championships to be held at Boston on April 7 and 8.

The trio of boxers in charge of a trainer and probably a team manager will sail from this country before the middle of April. and the tour and contests are expected to extend over a period of several months.

President Patrick has suggested a post-season championship series between Ottawa, Canadien, Seattle and Vancouver teams, and the Ottawas may also decide to participate in this. It is also probable that there will be a big game between the pick of the Ottawa and Canadien teams and the Pacific Coast all stars.
