DEAR MISS GREGORY - A few short weeks ago we learned, much to our regret that it New Religious Weekly.—The Methodist, A very profitable session was spent and the term. The time has passed only too we now know by your instruction. Not only have the lessons of the class room strengthened us but from you we have received many lessons in life, lessons which made us better boys and girls, and which will make us noble men and women lessons which as we grew older and by experience
