Fun and Fancy.

Incisive and dry, as becomes its nationality, was the robbet the Scotch shepherd to Lord Cockburn, of Bonaly.
That nobleman was sitting on the hillside with the shepherd, and, observing the sheep reposing in the coldest situation, he said to him: "John, if I were a sheep I would lie on the other side of the hill." The shepherd answered:
"Aye, my lord, but if ye had been a sheep ye would ha'e had mair sense." Lewis, the colored servant of Dr. Win.
Norris, of Baltimore, was married recently, and he convulsed the company by compelling the bride, during the ceremony, to swear upon the Bible that she "never allowed any other nigger to hug or kiss her." The bride was equal to the emergency, and, with an unflinching voice, she said: "Afore God, I never did!" Here came in more applause, and when the excitement subsided, it became her turn to exact the same from Lewis, but she was unsuccessful, as Lewis had too much of the George Washington material in him. They were then stationed in the middle of the floor and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Way.

Household Hints.

FLOATING ISLAND.
Beat yolks of three eggs until very light; sweeten and flavor to taste; stir into a quart of boiling milk, cool till it thickens; when cool, pour into glass dish; whip the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, sweeten, and set over a dish of boiling water to cook. Take a tablespoon and drop the whites on top of the cream, far enough apart so that the "little white islands" will not touch each other.
PARSNIP STEW.
Three slices of salt pork, boil one hour and a half; scrape six parsnips, cut in quarters, lengthwise; add to the pork and let boil one-half hour, then add a few potatoes and let all boil together until the potatoes are soft.
WHEAT MUFFINS.
One quart of flour, two tablespoonfuls of flour, five eggs, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in hot water, two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, milk enough to make a thick batter.
CINNAMON ROLLS.
Take a piece of pie crust, roll it out and cut in narrow strips; sprinkle cinnamon over it and roll up tight, put in a tin which has been well oiled with butter; bake until brown.
COCONUT JUMBELES.
One pound of coconut grated, three-fourths of a pound of sugar, three eggs, a large iron spoonful of flour; drop on buttered pans.
GOLD AND SILVER CAKE.
One teaspoon white sugar, one-half teaspoon butter, whites of four eggs, two thirds teaspoon of sweet milk, two cups of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder; flavor. Gold cake: same as above, using the yolks of the four eggs, and adding one whole egg.
GRAHAM COOKIES.
Two cups of sugar, one cup of sour cream, one half teaspoonful of soda, mix quickly, roll and bake.
CHICKEN FRITTERS.
Cut a cold boiled chicken in small pieces, put in a dish and season with salt and pepper. Make a batter of three eggs, one pint of milk and flour; stir in the chicken and fry in hot lard.
EGG SAUCE.
Roll one tablespoonful of butter in flour and stir it into one cup of meat broth; add two beaten eggs; boil one minute. Pound the yolks of four hard-boiled eggs and season; pour over the liquid.
FRIED PARSNIPS.
Boil until tender in salted water; cut into slices, dredge with flour and fry brown.
Kip shoes may be kept soft and free from cracks by rubbing them once a week with a little pure glycerine or castor oil.
The best way to free a wardrobe infested with moths is to burn sulphur in it. Camphor will prevent the coming of the moths. The cheapest and surest method is to keep furs in a drawer, and as you fold them well pepper them with common white pepper.
A towel folded several times and dipped in hot water and quickly wrung, and then applied over the seat of the pain in toothache or neuralgia, will generally afford prompt relief. Headaches almost always yield to the simultaneous application of hot water to the feet and the back of the neck.
We know of a lady once who was famed for her social gatherings. Everybody came away delighted from her entertainments. When some one asked her the secret she simply replied "Plenty of light." Try it, friend, in your own homes. If you wish your company to enjoy themselves give them light in abundance.
DELMONICO PUDDING.—Three pints milk, five eggs, four tablespoonfuls corn starch, sweetened to taste. Boil starch in the milk five minutes, beat the eggs, leaving out the whites of three, pour them into the starch. Flavor to taste.
Put into a dish, bake. When nearly done spread the whites beaten to a froth, sweetened and flavored, over the top of the pudding.
If your windows are narrow, or even if they are of the usual width, and you feel that you cannot afford double curtains, single ones may be draped so gracefully that they will answer admirably. They should not be looped back with ribbons, but be pinned or laced back in several places. Begin to tack or pin back quite high, or you cannot prevent a drawing and awkward appearance lower down.
If you wish to improve upon the usual method of smothering beefsteak with onions, try this:—Cut one quart of onions in very small bits, not over an inch long, and as thin as a sharp knife will cut them. Let them lie in cold water with a good sprinkling of salt in it for half an hour. Drain them well, and fry them in a deep frying pan, with a good deal of very hot lard in it. They must cook immediately and be crisp and moist

Now is the season for preparing communion wine. The following receipt has been used in several localities and found satisfactory: Make the grapes into jelly allowing three-fourths pound of sugar to a pint of grape juice. Boil until it "jells." Put up in pint bowls. When wanted, dissolve one bowl of jelly in one quart of boiling water. When cool it is ready for use. Use glass, earthen or porcelain vessels in the preparations.— Morning Star.

The crazy or mosaic patchwork can be used to good advantage in covering the cushion on the lid of the blacking box, and makes it really ornamental; if a band of plush or velvet is put around the edge the effect is very pretty. Another way to ornament with the patchwork is to make a panel of it with a strip of plain silk or satin on each side, and a narrow band of velvet at each end; at the lower end fringe or small halls should be put on.
An inexpensive but neat table cover for a common room is made by taking a square of cretonne for the centre. Choose cretonne with very small figures, and of not too bright colors; for a border put a band of linen around it—dark drab linen, fringe this out, and make quite a deep fringe; where the linen joins the cretonne, on the seam put a row of fine feather stitching and on the corners also. Dust does not show on this spread, and can be easily shaken from it.

Oscar Wilde sometimes says very sensible things. He is now preaching the gospel of loosely fitting dresses for women. Here he is right. True, con-stricted waists, high shoulders, gigantic tournures, and those masses of artificial folde extending from the throat to the waist for which we do not know the technical term, are very successful ways of concealing an ill-built figure; but, after all, natural folds are the most beautiful forms for a garment: witness the becomingness of a tastily trimmed dressing gown—a becomingness due solely to the fact that this article of attire is always made of soft, pliable, loosely-hanging material, which, in addition to its own prettiness, permits of easy, graceful movement on the part of the wearer.

Did she Die?

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifling by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling and unobtrusive ex-posure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' experience with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.
A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed nearly all night awake. The doctor sent me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL, a permanent cure was effected. I am now 65 years old, hale and hearty, and an satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
HORACE FAIRBROTHER,
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, Mrs. EMMA GEORGY,
150 West 125th St., New York, May 25, 1882.
"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
L. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 15, 1882.
"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S
JOSEPH WALDEN,
Byhalis, Miss., April 5, 1882.
"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
F. A. GARDNER,
Falmouth, Texas, April 22, 1882.
No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
