Why did he look so grave? she asked, What might the trouble be?
"My little maid," he sighing said, "Suppose that you were me, And you a weighty secret owned, Pray, tell me what you'd do?"
"I think I'd tell it somebody,"
Said she, "if I were you!"

But still he sighed and looked askance, Despite her sympathy.
"Oh, tell me, little maid," he said Again, "if you were me, And if you loved a pretty lass. O then, what would you do?" "I think I'd go and tell her so."

'My little maid, 'tis you," he said, Ah then, she turned away her head. And ne'er a word said she
