12. — LADIES' TUCKED SHIRT WAIST.

For a separate blouse to wear with skirts, there is no style better for purpose than a well-fitting tucked model. This one has a broad plait over the shoulders in Gibson effect and small tucks on each side the front closing. The sleeve is in regulation shirtwaist style. The design will develop well in madras, linen, cotton, silk and woolen. The pattern cut in 6 sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42. Give bust measure. It requires 3 1/2 yds of 24 inch material for the 36 size.

The pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Suitable materials for any of these patterns can be procured from AYRE & SONS, Ltd. Samples on request. Pattern number. Mail orders promptly attended to.

13. — TWO PRETTY CORSET COVERS.

These attractive corset covers may be made of handkerchief linen, embroidered flouncing or other material. The making is a very simple matter and will be seen at a glance. The fullness at the neck and waist is regulated by ribbon-run heading. If preferred, worked buttonholes may take place of the heading for running ribbon through. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: Small, Medium and Large. These two patterns will be mailed to any address upon receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

BURT & LAWRENCE,
14 New Gower Street.

At R.C. Cathedral.

Large numbers attended the early Masses yesterday and received Holy Communion. At 11 o'clock High Mass was celebrated by His Grace the Archbishop. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche was assistant Priest and Rev. Father McDermott and Rev. Father Goff Deacons at the Throne. Father O'Callaghan and Father Sheehan were Deacons of the Mass, and Rev. Dr. Greene Master of Ceremonies.

The High Altar was beautifully decorated with flowers, lilies and ferns, the work of Mr. D. Clatney who has exquisite taste in the art of decorating. The music by the choir was appropriate to the day including the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel.

The music of the Gloria was from Turner's Mass and was a most inspiring rendition. The solo in the "Qui Tollis Peccata" being splendidly rendered by Mr. J. L. Slattery.

In the evening there was Pontifical Vespers at which His Grace officiated in full pontificals. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche was Deacon at the Throne, assisted by Fathers Pippy and Goff. The Chanters were Revs. O'Callaghan and Sheehan; Dr. Greene, Master of Ceremonies. Dauby's Magnificat was sung and Gounod's Tantum Ergo. There was a very large congregation.

Gower St. Church.

The music at Gower Street Church last evening was very inspiring. Several selections were given from "Handel's Messiah" for which the Rev. Pastor, Dr. Cowperthwaite, took occasion to compliment the choir-master, Mr. King.

The solos given by Mrs. King were particularly fine, especially Handel's "Lift up your heads, O ye gates." Mr. King is doing good work and is bringing the choir up to the proud standard that it enjoyed in bygone days. The sermon preached by Dr. Cowperthwaite was "The walk to Emmaus." It was particularly appropriate to Easter Day, as was also that delivered by Rev. Mr. Matthews in the morning. There were large congregations at both services. The voluntary played by Mr. King was a delightful rendition. The pulpit and Communion table were beautifully decorated with lilies, emblematical of the Resurrection.

Cochrane St. Church.

Rev. J. Allan, M.A., of Toronto, Supt. for the Home Missions of the Methodist Church of Canada, preached at Cochrane St. Church yesterday. The Rev. gentleman took his text from Genesis 15 chap. 1, 2 verses—"I am thy shield and thy exceeding great reward." It was a masterly discourse and the congregation was electrified by his very clever exposition of the text and its connection with mission work. At the service at night Hon. H. J. B. Woods occupied the chair, and the service took the form of a platform meeting. Mr. Woods gave a fine address on "Missions." The report was given by Rev. F. R. Matthews, pastor of the church. Mr. Fenwick, the representative of the Board of Missions also participated in the exercises. Mr. Allan delivered a practical address on the social conditions in great cities and the need of the people waking up to the necessity of reform. The music was delightful—both carols and anthems. The solos were taken by Mrs. Mews and Miss Vincent. The principal part of the programme will be repeated at the church recital on Wednesday, the 26th inst.

Glencoe Arrived.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the s.s. Glencoe arrived here from Louisburg, 44 hours on the run. The ice now in near Scatterie last Saturday morning and Capt. Spracklin had to make a detour to get clear of it, which caused a delay of five hours. The Glencoe brought a full freight, and besides 72 passengers stowaways, the following in saloon: Capt. R. Drake, R. B. Knopp, K. Noah, G. Fairburn, C. N. Hall, J. Battcock, W. Shanahan, Misses Chase (2), Mrs. S. Zinck and 2 children, Miss Blackmore, Mrs. E. Clarke, W. Clarke, W. H. Multhead, T. Moulton, W. F. O'Reilly, D. F. Meaney, W. Power, M. Porier, A. Adelba, J. W. Manuel, Miss White and H. R. Field.

Their Boat Swamped.

Two men, Hibbs and Mercer, had a narrow escape from being drowned last Saturday. They left Bell Island to come to Topsail in a leaky punt. For a while one man kept her free while the other "sculled" her along, but when half way over she began to fill faster than Mercer could bail. The only chance of saving their lives now was to run for Little Bell Island. This they did and beached her, the water being then up to the thwarts. Luckily friends of theirs, Mercers, saw them from Topsail, and two of them putting off in a boat rescued the men and brought them home. The leaky boat was left at the Island.

IN HOSPITAL.—Dan McDonald, the Cape Breton Wrestler, who is still in hospital with typhoid fever, is slowly recovering.

G. KNOWLING. NEW BOOKS.

The Man Higher Up. Henry Russel Miller.

The story of a man who grows up from tenement wail to Governor of a State and who in his upward struggle finds a woman rising like himself and conquering selfish aims. Their love for each other is both inspiring and refining. For its vital human appeal this book is remarkable. $1.50.

A Successful Wife. G. Dorset.

The experiences described are simply typical of many modern marriages and every woman will recognize their truth. There is a complete absence of both hysterics and of preaching. $1.50.

The Gold Brick. Brand Whitlock.

Whitlock has been a reporter and sees things with a reporter's sharp penetration. He has been an Attorney and knows the drama of the Courts. Now he is Mayor of Toledo, a large city in the State of Ohio, by the persistence of a following independent of parties. The Gold Brick shows the politician on the up grade by the triumph of good impulses. $1.50.

The Way to Peace. Margaret Deland.

The story of an episode in the life of a husband and wife told with strength and understanding of character. The husband is a kindly well-to-do lawyer. The wife a loving but moody and restless woman, and the villagers hardly approve of her or her husband who honours her.

The Rosary.

One of those unusual stories that appeal to all classes of readers, an ideal love story, a source of genuine delight. $1.25.

The Mistress of Shenstone by the same author. $1.25.

The Rose and the Ring. Geo. B. McCutcheon.

David Jennison, the young Virginian, who comes fleeing over the mountains is a handsome, likeable and chivalrous person. And the Rose is just as sweet and brave and fascinating. Thrilling adventures also form part of the story. $1.50.

Whirlpools. Henry Sienkiewicz.

Deals with condition of modern life. An unusual love story. $1.50.

Simon the Joker. W. J. Locke.

A novel full of wit and action and life. The characters are all out of the ordinary and splendidly depicted. $1.50.

Mark Twain's Speeches.

This volume contains several hundred speeches, some long, some short. $2.00.

Concert at Ramea.

A very interesting concert was held on the 8th inst., at the R. C. Hall, and was a decided success from start to finish. Programme was rendered in a praiseworthy manner and great credit is due to all who contributed to make the concert such a success. Mr. Geo. Penny opened and closed the concert. He spoke words of praise for those who had the training of the little ones, and thanked the audience for patronising the concert in such numbers, their applause after each part was rendered proved to those on the stage that their efforts were appreciated. God Save the King brought the concert to a close when all the audience joined in.

Boys Will Suffer.

It is now thought that the accident to Mrs. Hynes, to which we alluded Saturday, will cause the loss of the sight of one eye, which the particles of the broken glass cut severely. The crowd of boys who hang round the part of Duckworth Street where Mrs. Hynes resides have been repeatedly warned by the police, but all to no avail. Stone throwing and snowballing are their pastimes and the police will now prosecute the gang. Sergt. Mackey has the case in hand and has also the name of each lad, and all will be summoned to court for their unruly conduct.

S.S. Labrador From the Gulf.

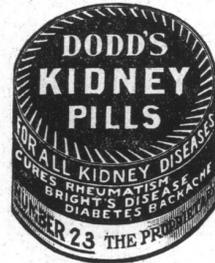

Yesterday morning at 6 o'clock the s.s. Labrador, Capt. D. Martin, arrived from the Gulf sealfishery with the excellent trip of 12,500 seals, about 500 of which are old. After leaving Channel on Friday, March the 10th, she had the first sign of the seals on Sunday, the 12th, when the men captured two fine whitecoats; but few others were seen until the Saturday afterwards, when, running into a small patch about 35 miles east of Bird Rocks, about 150 were killed.

She steamed through the fog all Sunday, and that night the seals could be heard crying around the ship. She was into a big patch and the work of slaughter began, but only 400 were secured as a terrific snow storm began and the men had to deist. This lasted all day, but next morning the weather was clear, the men were out early and killed nearly 7,000 for the day. The following day, Wednesday, 5,000 more were accounted for. The Viking and Southern Cross could be seen off to the westward evidently doing well also, and the patch being pretty well cleaned up, the ship began to pick up her pans on Thursday.

Another storm coming on drove the men aboard ship at noon that day, and that night became jammed and remained so for about 18 days. The ship drifted with the current and the men had to labor hard in gutting the seals to the ship, being compelled to tow them over 5 miles of rough uneven ice, which was often rafted, and they could only make two tows per day. This was necessarily tedious but it was the only way to get the seals on board. All were safely stowed below decks by Wednesday, April 6th.

On the 6th Capt. Martin used seven kegs of powder in blasting the ship out of the ice. She was released and steamed a few miles, after which she again became caught, and remained so until the 12th, when the fog became slack. She started for home when only 3 miles off Cape St. George.

She called at Cedroy, landed about 100 men of her crew there, then went to Channel and landed more, after which she proceeded here, but harbored at St. Lawrence owing to stormy weather. She left St. Lawrence at 5 a.m. Saturday. The weather all the spring was stormy and the ice heavy, so that Capt. Martin is to be congratulated on his success as master of the Labrador for his first spring. Had not the ship been jammed she would have had a full load. The Kite had 2,000 seals on March 29th, and the belief is that she will have a good trip.

More Sealers Discharged Saturday

The Viking finished discharging Saturday afternoon. She landed 17,886 young harps, 160 old harps and 4 old hoods; total, 18,052. Gross weight 354 tons, 17 cwt, 3 qrs.; net, 342 tons, 9 lbs.; net value, $30,346.49. Her crew of 216 men shared $46.61 each. Capt. Bartlett share was $1,213.85.

The Florizel also finished discharging Saturday afternoon. Her trip out was 25,342 young harps, 696 young hoods, 200 bedlamers 65 old harps, 735 old hoods; total, 28,129. Gross weight, 566 tons, 16 cwt, 2 qrs., 5 lbs.; net weight, 478 tons, 2 cwt., 2 qrs., 18 lbs. Net value, $40,818.97. Her crew of 270 men shared $50.20 each. Capt. Kean shared $1,638.75.

Stowaway After Stowaways.

Before the Labrador left here, one of the masters of watch went through the ship looking for stowaways, and while doing so he was helped by a young man who procured a lantern and went through all the dark places on the ship with the officer, but none could be found. Later it was discovered that the man who had assisted the other in his search was himself a stowaway, but being a fine husky fellow could not be distinguished from any other member of the crew. He went out in the ship and worked with the rest of the men.

Mr. George Penny, Ramea, arrived in town Saturday, and is staying at the Crosbie Hotel.

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

Chautauqua fiends are weary, their lives are full of care; the world seems bleak and dreary, and gloom is everywhere. "Alas," they make confession, "our program's all awry; that dog-gone extra session has knocked our plans sky high. The stately human wonder whose talks are all the rage, this year won't paw and thunder upon our helpful stage. Our tents no more will shelter his bald and noble head; in Washington he'll swelter, and wish that he were dead. In Washington he'll suffer, and mop his steaming face, the while some cheaper duffer comes here to take his place. Yes, while he saves the nation, and speaks in thunder tones, some guy of humbler station will collar all the bones. Chautauqua fans will languish this summer, that is sure; but O the bitter anguish the statesman must endure! Compelled to earn their wages in misery and woe, while on Chautauqua stages cheap "subs" rake in the dough! But let us draw a curtain upon this dismal scene; for programs are uncertain as visions of long green."
