At the City Hall.

There were present at the City Council's meeting last evening Councilors Martin, Ryan, Coaker, Mullaly and Myrick. Mayor Ellis presiding.

When the pay rolls were being read some extra charges made in the expenses of the Sanitary Stables were challenged, and the Supervisor was asked to explain. It was shown that $50 a month was being paid for extra work in the department and that in the last decade the cost had increased from $19,000 to $38,000. The Supervisor believed that some of the help was unnecessary, and the matter of running the department will be thoroughly investigated.

It was shown that night soil was being deposited in the West End and also in the East End and the Supervisor was instructed to take immediate action.

The plans revised for the new additions to the Post Office were approved.

Miss Sarah Pope again asked permission to repair houses on George Street. Engineer and Agent of the property will consult with the Council on the matter.

Plans submitted by Mr. Geo. Snow for steps to his residence, Springdale Street, were approved subject to ratification of Engineer.

Visitor Lake Caretaker reported trespassers there and that wood was being cut on the city's property. The Solicitor will bring the matter under the notice of the Magistrate.

With the passing of the Engineer's report and routine work the meeting adjourned.

New Rink Projected

A new rink is projected by hockey enthusiasts and sports generally and the question is now under the consideration of the League. The belief is that if another rink was erected more than one hockey team could be brought here from Canada, and the proposition is thought, would be a paying one; also races could be held in it.

Hair Stops Falling, Dandruff Disappears 25c. "Danderine."

SAVE YOUR HAIR! BEAUTIFY IT! INVIGORATE YOUR SCALP. DANDERINE GROWS HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT!

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy and first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself to-night—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

The Telegram Scores.

Dear Sirs—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of "Mathieu's Syrup" from you. It was not known in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I knew would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good and our people ask for it. Several stores in this country now keep it in stock and report sales increasing. I have bought from you since August 16th, 1907, 4 Gross and have only three dozen on hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store. Yours truly,

Poor Advertising

I hired Jim Wiggleshaw to make a fine mud fence for me. Some people say that Jim's a fake, and with them I agree. He said he'd build as fine a fence as ever raised the dead, and I possessed so little sense, I let him go ahead. And now that fence is a disgrace, an eyesore to the town; it's crooked, sagging out of place, and almost falling down. It cannot stand the wind and flood, it crumbles in the gale; Jim made it of the cheapest mud that he could find on sale. And odd, with language full and free, that Jim crew fence I've cursed; but, much as it's annoying me, it's hurting Jim the worst. For every passer-by will pause and say: "This beats my time! Such work as old Jim Wiggleshaw's is nothing but a crime!" Old Jim's complaining more or less the long and sad year through; he's always loaded with distress, he can't get work to do. He finds it hard to get the seeds, while others merrily make, he's left around so many ads proclaiming him a fake, and every job you leave half done, while bringing you grief and tears; it is an ad and it will run displayed for years and years.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, Feb. 28.
A comprehensive scheme dealing with the entire subject of the aerial fleet and its necessary appendages, has been laid before the Government by Claude Graham White. The scheme includes the establishment of a mercantile air-fleet subsidized by Government, air-ship stations at every large city around the coast; and schools for air-pilots, all over the United Kingdom. It is understood that a powerful group of financiers is ready to finance any scheme, having given support for the building of a mercantile fleet in various parts of England. Graham White, in an interview, said: "It is my aim to found a mercantile air fleet on the same basis as the Cunard Line. We could carry mails for the Government and the air-ships could be used for general purposes in time of peace. The proposal is cut and dried, and we are prepared to have the works provided we are given the assurances. We are prepared to foster this immense industry with private capital, and to take full responsibility. We are ready to secure the finest skilled mechanics from all parts of the Empire, and to put a Mercantile air fleet on a paying basis."

M. Hymans, the Liberal leader, declared that in the event of war, Belgium would become the battle ground of Europe, and the country must do its utmost to prepare for its defence.

The Firemen's Trouble.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I have been expecting some defence on the part of the Messrs. Bowring by way of justification for hiring foreign stokers to take the place of white stokers on the St. Lawrence and Florizel at the coming seafishery. Their silence is an admission that they have no any defence, and I have it is of such a weak nature, that it would only help the cause of the native laborer. It may be imagined by the superficial observer or thinker that the contracting for outside of and bringing into this country, foreign workmen when the native can be had to perform the work, is but a trifling matter, and that the community has no interest in it, but if he delve a little deeper, he will find it is a very serious one. In order to prevent unjust or unfair competition in the labor market and to keep wages up to the level of the living standard, there is what is known in some countries as the anti-alien labor law, the object of which is to prevent that from taking place which is really happening here, namely, contracting with foreign workmen in another country to perform work in this country to the exclusion of the men in this country.

Now if the Messrs. Bowring Brothers can do this, and are permitted without any protest being made or steps taken, there is nothing to prevent other employers of labor from importing the cheap workmen from the sweat-shops of Europe to compete with our own. Some months or more ago it was said that one of the Bell Island Companies was contemplating on an extensive scale, the introduction of Italians and others into the country to work at Bell Island, but they abandoned the proposed scheme, they found that, it might arouse antagonism and instead of serving the interests of the Company would be the very opposite; but now we have it in reality, on the part, not of a Company whose shareholders are non-residents, but by a Company, the place of whose fortune was laid in this country. If Bowring were to contract with workmen here to proceed to the United States for the purpose of performing work there, the men would not be permitted to land, but sent to their homes at the Company's expense, and in addition, the Directors of the Company would be liable before the courts and punished. Now this is the way matters would stand, if what is contemplated by Bowring's happened in the United States.

Sometime ago there was a rumor that sealing steamers may outfit in Canadian ports to prosecute the sealing industry, and immediately there was a cry on the part of those interested in steamers for legislation. Now the interests, not of the owners, but of the men who prosecute the fishery, are threatened, and it may become necessary that the law referred to, now in existence in the United States, be put upon the Statute Book here.

If fishermen to prosecute the fishery can be imported there is nothing to prevent the sealer from being imported, so that every sealer who will this spring prosecute the seal fishery is directly concerned and interested in the question of the fishery is directly concerned and interested in the question of the Bowring Company importing Italian or some other class of firemen into this country. True, there has been no necessity in the past for the passing of an anti-alien labor law, because conditions did not require nor demand it. I would therefore ask the mere superficial observer and all sealers, as well as every man who is interested in the employment of native labor and the keeping of our people at home, to ponder deeply over this matter, and seriously ask themselves the question, Can this be permitted? Are not cash and every one of us workmen whether we be fishermen, farmers, or laborers interested in this question, and then let their answer in no uncertain manner.

I shall ask leave, with your permission, Mr. Editor, to return to this subject again.

Yours truly,
FRANK WOODS,
President Firemen's Union.

What is Culture?

What is Culture?

First, what is it not? It is not anything one may put on. It is not fine manners, fashionable clothes, correct speech, nor skill in the tricks of politeness. It is not "knowing how to enter a room properly," nor sipping soup from the side of a spoon, nor using the right fork, nor having the art of saying pretty things. Neither is it knowledge of books, not acquaintance with the last comic opera or play, nor having read the latest novel. It is not knowing Greek, Latin and English literature, nor any other kind-stuff. One may be perfect in all these things and be a cad. These arts and accomplishments have their value, but it is not culture values.

What is culture?

It is the harmonious, healthy development of one's personality. It means a brain developed until it thinks clearly, the will until it acts properly and stands firm, and the feelings until they minister to life, not destroy it.

Culture is simply skill in using one's self. It is opposed to awkwardness, stumbling, bungling and the like. It is not good against bad, righteousness against sin, nor morality against immorality; it is high as against low, fine as against coarse.—Dr. Frank Crane in Woman's World for March.
