GERMANS ABANDON MOVEMENT.
Special to Evening Telegram.
BASLE, Switzerland, Sept. 2.

The Germans have abandoned their movement towards the French fortress of Belfort as a result of Russian offensive movement in Eastern Prussia. The great army of 150,000 German and Austrian troops which crossed the Rhine several days ago, accompanied by a large number of siege guns, has been withdrawn from Alsace, and has started North to replace the German troops withdrawn from the lines to North Lorraine and in the Department of Moselle and Metz. The French are now complete masters of Alsace. There are about 60,000 German reservists left in the upper part of the Province and it is expected that a French offensive movement against them will be undertaken.

LINES UNBROKEN.
LONDON, Sept. 2.

A Paris correspondent sends the following: "To-day I pushed up as near the front as possible, but could only get a general impression of the events of recent days. It must be borne in mind that although on the left the allied armies have been forced to withdraw their lines so far they remain intact; at no point has the enemy succeeded in driving a wedge into the circle which is drawing closer and closer around the capital and gaining in strength as it retreats. Amid all the welter of war the British troops have produced a great quality of efficiency. The spirit of Kitchener apparently pervades the whole British expeditionary force."

TRANSFERS TO BORDEAUX.
PARIS, Sept. 3.

At midnight it was officially announced that the President and the Embassies of the Allied Nations had left at 10.50 p.m. for Bordeaux, where they will stay during hostilities. United States Ambassador Herrick, who has taken charge of the Archives of the embassies of all belligerent Powers, remains in Paris with First Secretary Bliss and the second Secretary. The United States will be represented at Bordeaux by John B. Garrett, United States Ambassador to Argentina, who left with the Government, accompanied by the third secretary, Capt. Parker. Mr. Herrick will remain here to afford protection to Americans, as the Ambassadorial residence is in neutral territory, where Americans can find refuge in case of need. It also makes possible for American banking interests, to continue here in view of the relief of possible distress from the United States.

JAPANESE TROOPS LANDED IN CHINA.
PEKING, Sept. 3.

Japan has landed between 10,000 and 15,000 troops from 18 transports at Lung Kow, a newly opened port, about 100 miles north of Tsing Tau. This is declared to have been done in violation of China's neutrality. The German Legation has protested to the Foreign Office against an infringement of China's neutrality by Japan.

BOMBARDING MALINES.
LONDON, Sept. 2.

A despatch from Antwerp contains the following official announcement: The Germans are again bombarding Malines, aiming at the steeple of the Cathedral. Certain movement of German troops in the direction of Assche, six miles northwest of Brussels, gave rise to the belief that the Germans were contemplating a movement towards Termonde, 16 miles east of Ghent. However, the Belgian troops have been reinforced on account of the necessity of preserving control of Waasland. The enemy advanced from Brussels to Assche yesterday but could not penetrate further north. Nine and Alost, 16 and 15 miles respectively from Ghent in different directions have been occupied by Germans. In the Province of Antwerp and Limbourg the situation is unchanged.

KILLING THEIR WOUNDED.
LONDON, Sept. 2.

The Ostend correspondent of the Express quotes Leon Hard, a Senator of Hainaut, as testifying that "the Germans killed their own severely wounded men on the battle field, only tending to those who would soon recover. There are many signs, according to the despatch that the Germans suffered heavily at Mons. Returning remnants of those who were in the fight spoke bitterly of the British courage. One force of 250 British

Mrs. Rossley's Real Living Pictures.

ARTISTIC AND NOVEL.

The audience last night at Rossley's were delighted with the real living pictures and great praise is given the Rossleys for their clever work, also our own city girls. The stage setting is very effective and nothing could look prettier than those children representing all the different characters as they do. The poses are changed all the time to make it more varied and interesting. The moving pictures are splendid. There will be shown one of the Grand Vitagraph pictures in a day or two, called the "French Spy," in two reels. This is a wonderful production.
