

CHRISTMAS 1914

Once more the Christmas season has rolled around. We therefore wish to solicit the inspection of our Christmas Goods, too numerous to mention individually the articles we have suitable for Xmas presents. Therefore we invite the public to come and inspect for themselves and be convinced that we have one of the best assortments ever shown in Newfoundland.

A SLIGHT FIRE.—A slight fire occurred at 8 o'clock last evening at the house of Mr. J. Power, caused by soot igniting in the chimney. The central and western fire companies were quickly on the scene and the application of a stream from the chemical extinguished the fire after a few minutes.

15 P.C. Declared.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the steamers Bellaventure and Bonaventure was held last evening at the office of Messrs. A. J. Harvey & Co., managing owners. Hon. M. G. Winter presided and others present were Sir Joseph Outerbridge, Hon. James Angel, Geo. Knowling, J. B. Ryan, John Harvey, R. K. Bishop, James Ryan and Messrs. K. R. Prowse, G. W. B. Ayre, Wm. Cook, Tasker Cook, Gordon Winter, David Baird, P. McNamara, Thos. Harris, D. Galway, J. Hancock and A. D. Brown. All last year's Directors were again appointed with the addition of Hon. John Harvey, as President of the Bellaventure s.s. Co., and Hon. Jas. Ryan, President of the Bonaventure s.s. Co., both succeeding the late Hon. J. S. Pitts. The reports presented showed that both ships had a successful year and that despite the bad sea-fare a substantial amount was placed to the credit of the shareholders. A dividend of 15 p.c. was declared. It was decided that out of the reserve fund both ships will be sent to England next year to be lengthened.

WASTED MONEY.

You're free with your money, Charles Abalom Jones; you think it is funny to blow in the bones. Your wealth you are blowing with insolent ease, as though it were growing on gooseberry trees. But now, ere you squander your last blooming red, consider and ponder—oh, Charles, look ahead! The swift years are spinning away to their bourne, soon you'll be beginning lost youthtime to mourn; you'll find that the dollar is harder to nail, and then you will holler, but 'twill not avail. Old men by the bushel are starving today, and, Charles, the whole push'll bear out what I say. Had they but a fragment of wealth they would blow to learn what a jag meant, in days long ago, they now might be resting in comfort and ease, a-smiling and jesting, serene as you please. The old men are straying through alley and street; the old men are praying for something to eat; they throng in the city, starved, weary and lame; oh cheer, what a pity! oh, Charles, what a shame! And once they were blowing their rubles with grace; and once they were going your idiot pace. Their clamorings reach you, their sighs and their groans; do they nothing teach you, Charles Abalom Jones?
