

Hopeful Sentiment Prevailing in Dublin.

Turks Are Not Seeking an Armistice—U. S. Shipping Board Issues Ultimatum--Spread of Cholera in Russia Decreasing.

GREEKS TOO OPTIMISTIC.

LONDON, July 28. The report that the Turks have approached the Allies, with the purpose of obtaining a cessation of hostilities between them and the Greeks, is unshared, according to information received in official circles here. This fact is substantiated by the fact that there have been Greek victories in Asia Minor, but it minimises the moral effect they have had upon the Turks. It is said that the Turkish Government was executed skillfully, and with but small losses in men and supplies.

LIGHT ON RUSSIAN DARKNESS.

COPENHAGEN, July 28. Rumours are in circulation in Copenhagen that the Russian capital to-day, as an extreme measure, in order to secure help in the present crisis in Russia, Nikolai Lenin has proposed a settlement eventually of the national debt, which the Bolsheviks cancelled after the revolution. The proposed payment of interest and capital would not be begun before 1923.

IRISH SETTLEMENT DELAYS.

DUBLIN, July 28. A more hopeful feeling prevailed here to-day concerning the solution of the Irish problem, and belief was expressed that, although the path to peace might be longer than at first anticipated, a settlement eventually would be reached. Meantime the truce will be continued. It was authoritatively stated here to-day that De Valera had not made application to the Government for release of members of the Irish Republican Parliament, who are in prison, and that, although their release would be granted on his request, it would not occur without their immediate intention of rejoining a Republican Parliament, as learned. Members of the Republican Cabinet, who were asked to-day as to the reasons for delay in rejoining the Parliament, replied that they would not do so until the release of imprisoned members was assured. It would imply that the situation had reached a more advanced stage than had been attained. They would imply that definite progress had been made.

DE VALERA TO MEET CRAIG.

DUBLIN, July 28. The next move in the Irish situation is likely to be another meeting in Ireland between Sir James Craig and Eamon De Valera, it is stated on good authority. It was difficult to arrange for this proposed meeting, but according to the informant, "They have got over the fence."

CHOLERA DECREASING.

RIGA, July 28. Noticeable decreases in the spread of Cholera during the past fortnight are reported in the Moscow Pravda. The newspaper says that the total registration of sufferers from the disease since the beginning of this year, were approximately 25,000, a considerable increase over the previous announcement, but the newspaper says this is due to delay in filing papers, most of which were for June.

WHY NOT?

LONDON, July 28. The United States Shipping Board, it was declared here to-day, has delivered an ultimatum to British Shipping Lines, that unless its ships are accorded fair treatment in contracts for transport of cotton from Alexandria, Egypt, to the United Kingdom, the Shipping Board will "declare open market" and haul anything, anywhere, at any rate.

PIN-PRICKING.

BOSTON, July 28. The British fishing schooner Helen McLain arriving here to-day with a catch of sword fish, was not allowed to land its cargo. A vacation on July 15 of the war time permit to British vessels to market their catches at United States ports, was given as the reason.

AUSTRALIA'S ARCHBISHOP.

MELBOURNE, July 28. The Australian Government has decided not to interfere with the landing of Archbishop Mannix, on his return from his round the world trip, or to insist on his taking the oath of allegiance, it was announced to-day.

INTERNATIONAL ATHLETICS.
TRAVERS ISLAND, N.Y., July 28. England was awarded the international track and meet with Princeton and Cornell here to-day, having taken five firsts and six second places to the United States' Athletics five firsts and five seconds.

Obituary.

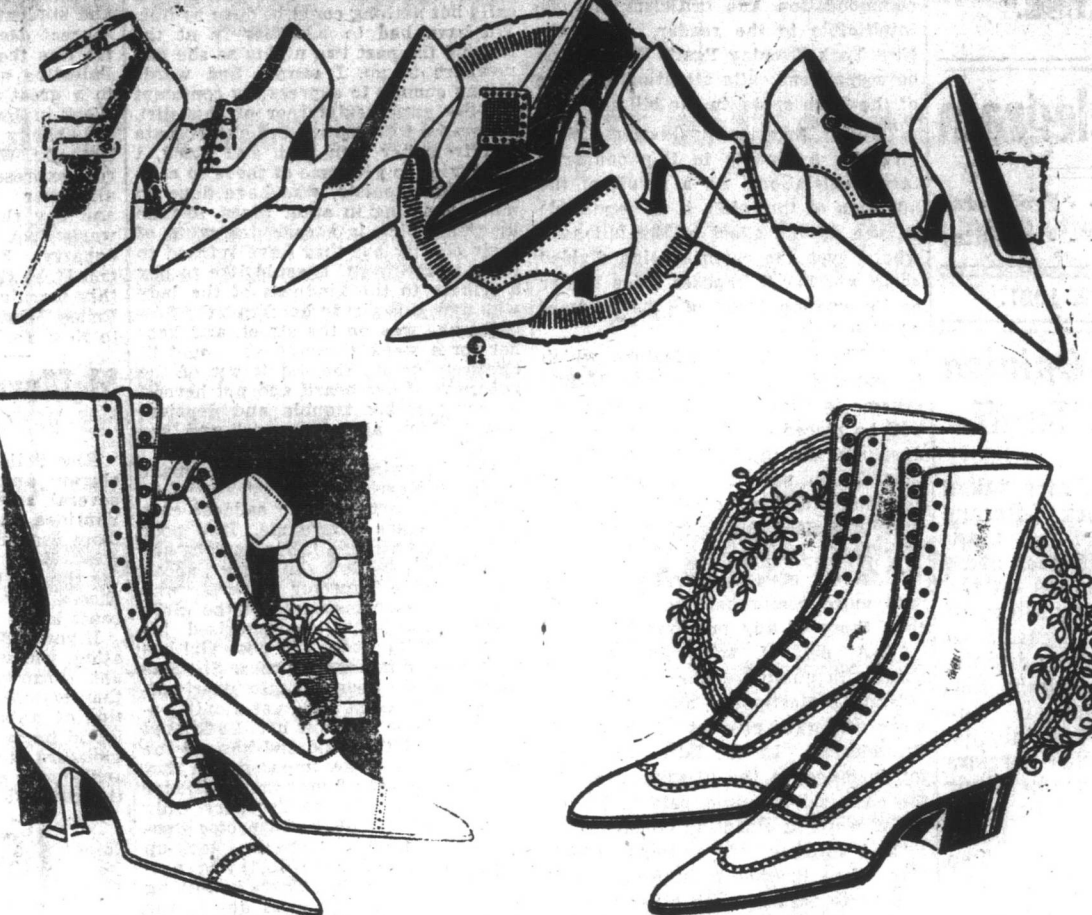

MRS. JANE SINGLETON.

When the last silent hours of the 27th of July were passing away, the soul of an aged and greatly respected person of St. Joseph's, Salmonier, Mrs. Jane Singleton, passed to its eternal reward. Deceased had reached the advanced age of 81 years, when she became ill, and after an illness of but a few weeks, which was borne with Christian resignation and true fortitude, she passed peacefully away. In life she was an example of patience and humility, tested and tried by many crosses of this world. She was the mother of a large family, and many of these, as well as her husband, have predeceased her by many years. She leaves to mourn her, three sons, John, Joseph and Vincent; one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Daly; and two brothers, John and Francis MacDonald. To these and to her other relatives, the community expressed their deep sympathy, as shown by the large attendance at her Requiem Mass and funeral. She was laid to rest beside her departed friends in St. Joseph's Cemetery. May her soul rest in peace.—Com. St. Joseph's, July 27, 1921.

North Sydney and Discos Play to a Draw.

On Saturday evening on the Ashby grounds in Sydney a very interesting game of soccer was played between a team of Newfoundlanders from North Sydney and the Disco team of Sydney.

Play started about 5.40 p.m. and with a slight breeze in their favor the Newfoundlanders started to rush matters and for a time gave the Discos a busy time, but when their goal tender was called upon to save a few difficult shots he did so in fine style. For the first fifteen minutes saw a few nice rushes by both teams and some midfield play when the Newfoundland boys broke loose and Williams with a nice head shot on a pass from Norman put No. 1 in the net. A few minutes later a repeat of the trick by placing No. 2 behind the posts. During the remainder of the first half play was give and take, the half time whistle sounding with the score Newfoundland, 2; Discos, 0.

The second period opened with the Discos out for trouble and the ball was no sooner in play than J. Robertson beat Wheeler, scoring No. 1 for his team. Things began to look bad for the Newfoundlanders for a few minutes after W. Robertson with a beauty from the right wing again repeated the trick thus equalizing the score. After this some nice dashes were made by both teams but without result. All eyes were strained when French put a whirlwind shot towards the Discos goal, but Byrne with a glancing head tip touched the ball over the bar. Soon after this the Discos were awarded a penalty but failed to score, the ball rebounding from the crossbar, and the Newfoundlanders soon had it down the field; after five minutes fast play the

Referee—H. Trapnell. It is understood that a return match is to be played during the week—North Sydney Herald, July 25.
