Oxonian Adrift. The Broken Spectacles.

TOWING LINES PARTED.
Owing to the strong wind and heavy sea prevailing during the past twenty-four hours, the S.S. Winifredian with the disabled freighter Oxonian in tow is having a hard time making port. During last night the steel towing line parted and the Oxonian, owing to her damaged rudderhead, went adrift. The ship is steaming but it is impossible to keep her head up to the wind. At noon hour to-day she was 10 miles N.E. of the narrows. The S.S. Cabot was out this morning taking two pilots. One was put on board the Oxonian after great difficulty. The Winifredian was obliged to steam into the narrows before the pilot could be put on board. After receiving her pilot the Winifredian steamed north to pick up the Oxonian. Owing to heavy cross seas all attempts to connect up the tow lines failed and the Cabot returned to port shortly after one o'clock.

AMUSING ASSAULT CASE.
Who broke the spectacles? This was the question which Judge Morris had to decide this morning when two women of Colonial Street who had each emerged from a fight with her eyeglasses broken, blamed the other for doing the damage. The Judge gave it up and dismissed the case. The complainant, in the box, said accused had had an argument with her and broke her spectacles in the friendly bout which followed. She produced the fragments of her glasses to prove her case. Then the accused was sworn and gave similar evidence. She too produced a pair of broken glasses. Neither party had witnesses to the fracas.

Kyle at Louisburg.
S.S. Kyle arrived at Louisburg at 10 a.m. to-day having occupied thirty-three hours in crossing Cabot Strait. The ship was delayed by heavy ice which filled the Strait. The Kyle left Port aux Basques at 1 a.m. yesterday. She was unable to make North Sydney which is again ice bound. The Kyle leaves Louisburg on Monday for Port aux Basques and will have a very large foreign mail. If she should again be delayed in crossing, no mail will arrive here before Thursday or Friday.

NO AGREEMENT.
DUBLIN, April 29.
The peace conference, called by Lord Mayor O'Neill of Dublin, held another meeting to-day, but after a three hour session dissolved without any agreement having been reached.

THE CHIMES ON MONDAY NIGHT.

Interesting Lecture.

CANON SMART ON "THE CHALLENGE OF ISLAM."

Rev. Canon Smart lectured before a large audience in the Canon Wood Hall last night on "The Challenge of Islam." He gave a graphic description of the history of Mohammedanism and the manner in which it spread itself westward to be stopped in 732 A.D. by the great battle of Tours. A description of the Mohammedan beliefs and how the religion had spread over all the East was also given. The lecturer spoke of the various methods taken by the Christian people to counteract the influence of the religion. Firstly, the influence and example radiated by medical missions; secondly, the preachings and teachings of Evangelists; and thirdly and most important, that of education. With the exception of Turkey, the entire Mohammedan world is noted for its gross illiteracy and the educational methods adopted by Christians have done much to improve the state of mind of the infidels and cure them of their superstitious belief in the Prophet. Turkey in Europe has a large number of students of University standing. Americans have established 400 schools, whose pupils are being taught the difference. Reference was made to the work performed by Bishop Valpy-French, who at 75, after labouring all his time in India, dedicated his remaining years to Mohammedan Missions in Arabia. Many similar references were made. The lecture was illustrated with many beautiful slides. To-morrow night Canon Smart will lecture on "The Way of the Cross" at the Nickel Theatre. The Passion Play pictures will be shown.

"Magic Cup," "The Sorcerer," "The Mikado," "Dorothy," "Rudigore" will be crowned by "The Chimes of Normandy."—apr29,21

The Quarterly SPRING NUMBER.

The Newfoundland Quarterly well maintains its reputation as a magazine of literary merit in the Spring Number which has just been published. It contains, among other good things, a further article by Mr. A. A. Parsons on "Governors I have known." His subject in the article under review is Sir Walter Davidson and the author gives an insight into the character of that gentleman which is bound to raise him high in the public estimation, even among those who were not on friendly terms with him during his pre-eminence. The second letter on Newfoundland History by Rev. T. J. Flynn is very interesting. There is also an article on "Winter Flying" by A. B. Perlin of the Evening Telegram staff and several excellent poems.
