Canadian Retaliation

We agree to the last letter with the editorial article in the current issue of the Trade Review dealing with the new Canadian Tax on our fish products going into that country, and that the Newfoundland Government should remit the export duty on similar articles because of this, apparently, retaliatory action of the Dominion. Newfoundland's export duty on fish and fish products has ever been considered an abomination by fishermen and exporters alike. When this tax was put on as a war tax by the late Government it then did not meet with general approval, and though submitted to without any great degree of protest, it was only because everybody held the impression that immediately peace was declared it would be dropped. That, unfortunately, has not been the case. The Government which imposed it went out of power the same year, and the present successors of that administration have not deemed it to be good finance to remove it. As a revenue producer, the export duty makes good. But that is not all that there is to it. As a handicap to inter-dominion trade it is seemingly doing its work with effect. Hence Canada's recent imposition of a duty against Newfoundland produce. Trade should in all cases be encouraged, not hampered; and especially should this be the case between this country and our big sister across the Gulf. Commercial war within the Empire is not calculated to improve or increase Imperial trade, and building up tariff walls to insuperable heights will not tend to strengthen the bonds of union. Our weekly contemporary sums up the situation to a nicety in concluding a well reasoned article as follows:

"We need markets for our fish and it is our business to make conditions for these markets as satisfactory as possible for the exporters and the fishermen of Newfoundland. The authorities of this country have adopted a fiscal policy that has led to retaliatory action in one market, to action that imposes a heavy handicap on the classes whose interests are the highest interests of Newfoundland. So while apparently taking only a small export tax from our own people, the Government of this country, in reality, takes double the amount of that tax and has so arranged things that our fishery products reach the Canadian market heavily penalized. If a Government profits only in so far as its people prosper, then the Government of this little island home of ours has embarked on a very unprofitable line of conduct in deciding to maintain an export tax on fish, no matter how small that tax may be. The fishery industry of Newfoundland is in a condition that calls for help, not for handicaps."

DR. STANLEY MARTIN PREACHES.
The morning service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday was attended by a large congregation. The service was conducted by Rev. T. B. Darby, M.A. The pulpit hung with ten large, handsome silk banners inscribed in Chinese characters with addresses of appreciation was occupied by Dr. Stanley Martin who delivered a powerful sermon on his work as a medical missionary in China. He referred to the greatness of the field, the sincerity of the converts and the opportunities for further service. Dr. Martin who has seen six years service in the field related how he had made up his mind to offer himself as a medical missionary during his school life and by study in Toronto and Montreal had prepared himself for the work, spending seven summers on the Labrador with Doctor Grenfell, first as wireless operator and later as medical assistant. Being released from service in Egypt as a medical officer during the war he was appointed to a mission station near the borders of China, Korea and Russia, where his labors were begun with only a pocket case of eight instruments as his entire surgical equipment. Then followed a sketch of how the station had grown from two small houses to a centre of importance in the district, having an academy and a large well equipped hospital heated with steam and lighted by electricity, with a well equipped operating room. The Doctor stated he had personally attended 160,000 patients during his six years in the field, not counting many more who had been looked after by his assistants. The Doctor closed his splendid address with an appeal for further help, not so much in a financial way, but for prayer which has a value beyond price. He will be in St. John's for about a month and plans to visit St. Anthony during the summer. Other opportunities will be given to hear him describe the work in the mission fields of China and Korea.

Tribute to Minister.

REV. E. W. FORBES' FAREWELL SERMON.

A tribute to the good work of Rev. E. W. Forbes, M.A., B.D., Pastor of the Church, and to the ability and personality of the Rev. Hammond Johnson, of Moncton, who assumes the Pastorate on August 10th, was paid at Gower St. Church yesterday morning by Rev. Mr. Goodwin. At night the Rev. Mr. Forbes preached his farewell sermon. Taking as his text, Philippians, 4:1: "Therefore my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved," he spoke with manifest feeling and sincerity of the events of the four years of his pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes leave by a.s. Sable I. on Wednesday for their new circuit at Guysboro, N.S.

At St. Mary's.

AMERICAN MISSIONARY PREACHES.

Rev. G. H. Seavey, B.A., occupied the pulpit at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin at evensong yesterday. Mr. Seavey preached an eloquent sermon which was greatly appreciated by the congregation. A graduate of Berkeley College, New Hampshire, Mr. Seavey is here en route for Battle Harbour, where he will take up parochial duties. While in St. John's he is the guest of Rev. Dr. Facey at Queen's College.

At Mount Carmel.

REQUIEM MASS AT CEMETERY.

There was a very large attendance at the annual Requiem Mass at Mount Carmel Cemetery yesterday morning. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph Pippy, who also delivered a very eloquent and touching sermon on the Doctrine of Purgatory and the duty of praying for the dead. The preacher took for his text "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins." The graves at Mount Carmel were in splendid order as was also the different walks, and great credit is due the Cemetery Committee. The new bell presented by Mrs. Margaret Howe was tolled for the first time yesterday.

Shot to Scare.

ACCUSED BOUND OVER.

"That he only shot to scare" was the defence of a man charged in the Police Court this morning with firing a revolver at two men, on the Topside Road last night. Plaintiff met the accused and asked him where he was going. He told them it was none of their business and as they passed on, they heard a shot behind them. The police were informed and accused was arrested. He was placed under bonds for his future good behaviour and the revolver was confiscated.

Six Planes Coming.

WILL BE USED AT HAWKE'S BAY AND FOR WINTER MAIL CARRYING - SIX HUNDRED MEN WANTED.

The development of Hawke's Bay by the Aerial Survey Company is rapidly progressing and several aeroplanes will be used on survey work during the next few months. Mr. F. Sidney Cotton, local representative of the Aerial Survey Company, who has been on a business trip to England during the past two months, returned by Saturday's express and leaves this week for Hawke's Bay. He told the Telegram to-day that six aeroplanes would arrive shortly from England. Three of the machines are Westlands, one is a Martinique, another a Bristol, and the sixth a special machine which will be used in flights to the Labrador. This plane is capable of crossing the Atlantic, can carry twelve passengers, and is fitted so that the airman can live in it. Two engines are coming with it, one a Napier 600 horse power, which will be installed when the machine is used as a seaplane. For winter work there is a 370 horse power Rolls Royce engine. Three photographic experts are coming out from England and will air map the Hawke's Bay district and other parts of the country. They will carry special apparatus, including a motion picture camera. Two hundred men are now permanently employed in timber cutting at Hawke's Bay. Mr. Cotton said that six hundred more are required, but owing to the large number obtaining Government relief, it is impossible to get them. There is, he said, work for 800 men, who could be permanently employed in developing Hawke's Bay. The Aerial Survey Co. is paying $2 per cord at the stump, and the cost of transport to Hawke's Bay is advanced. Within a few days, a boat will arrive to take a quantity of pit props which is ready for export and has been sold under contract. The capacity of the steamer is 2,500 cords. Mr. V. S. Bennett is supervising the work at Hawke's Bay. Mr. Cotton has obtained a 25 ton yacht "Hawke," which will be used in connection with the company's Northern activities. It has a 250 horse power gasoline engine and when opened out can do 20 knots, while its cruising speed is 14 knots. Mr. Cotton boarded her at Portland, Me., and with Capt. Olsen, an engineer and a steward, brought her up to Port aux Basques in four days, sailing only by day. She is now waiting at Humbermouth for Mr. Cotton who will soon make a trip to Labrador. Mr. A. S. Butler is coming to Newfoundland in November to assist in winter flying. He is an entrant for the King's Cup for a flight around England. This contest will take place in the near future.

A special trip will be made from St. George's Field after the football match. NOTE—Our Bowring Park service will be cancelled for to-night. -Jly17.11

HIS DIARY.

July 16th.—Early in the morning I waked with the noise of the rain, having never in my life heard a more violent shower. To Povy, whom I did find in bed. Among other things, he do tell me that he had heard how Sir Edgar Bowring will resign the office of High Commissioner, and he knows not who will succeed him. A very dull day for news, which is no uncommon thing these days. To the "Sign of the Book," where I did buy me the new book by the Baroness Orczy about the Scarlet Pimpernel. 50 home, and dine off a venison pasty and other good, plain and handsome dishes.

July 16th. (Lord's Day).—Lay long in bed, being weary after a week of hard work. So up and to walk, which I have not done this long time. Meeting Dr. Robinson, we did have discourse of the Humber Scheme, which he does not like, being that the guarantee removes the incentive.

Died Suddenly.

PASSING OF JOHN F. CARTER.

The sudden passing of Mr. John F. Carter at his home, Young Street, yesterday morning, will be heard with regret by a large circle of friends. The deceased, who was a very popular grocer, was employed at Knowling's West End store for the past 12 or 15 years. Apparently in good health he was working up to Saturday night when the store closed. During the morning, however, complaining of a pain in his chest, he sought medical advice. He was told to go slowly, but not taking the matter seriously, he continued to work. Yesterday morning whilst going up stairs he was stricken with a fatal spasm of the heart and expired almost immediately. The deceased leaves a widow and one child, to whom the Telegram extends sympathy.

Maintaining the Record.

We are always interested in results achieved by advertisers in the Telegram, and it was in this spirit of interested enquiry that we addressed ourselves to the Newfoundland representative of the Irish Ointment, Gibeol, so widely advertised here at present. Though the Ointment has only been a few weeks on the market results have been achieved that are nothing short of marvellous, and every day affords additional enthusiastic testimony of its curative powers. Already 8 unsolicited testimonials have been received from residents of the city. We were surprised on perusing them to find that the majority of them emanated from that tough-skinned and generally uncommunicative body, the inveterate trouters. The testimonials will be published from time to time in the Gibeol advertisements appearing in our columns.

Demonstrating Invention

A TREE RINDING MACHINE.

Mr. Cosker who is interested in an American invention for the rinding of trees is on a cruise in the various bays north demonstrating its utility. The machine is used in the preparation of pit props and will peel the bark off any sized tree in quick time, so that those who have seen it say it cuts too much of the wood. Mr. Cosker has been north as far as Indian Bay on his demonstration trip.

At Congregational Church.

DR. W. J. GUNN PREACHES.

At the morning service in the Congregational Church yesterday the preacher was Rev. Dr. Gunn, Secretary of the Canadian Congregational Union. Prefacing his sermon on Pilgrims of Faith, with greetings from the Union and from several old friends and pastors of the Queen's Road Church, Doctor Gunn outlined the situation in Canada, which was leading to the reunion of the Methodist Presbyterian and Congregational Churches. Already several important steps have been taken, beginning as far back as 1817 with a union of two Presbyterian bodies. Since then there have been a number of amalgamations and the present scheme is the culmination of a natural development. Then the three churches already co-operated in several ways, the Sunday School publications are identical, the colleges pool both their students and professors and there are some 1500 pastoral charges or preaching stations on a united basis. In these ways the ground has been well prepared and the complete fusion now planned will be an accomplished fact almost before it is realized. The text of the sermon was taken from the adventure of Abraham as related in Gen. XII-1-3. From this Doctor Gunn showed that pilgrimage is the law of life. In all sorts of ways God is always stirring us up to go forward. When the child goes to school he ventures into the unknown, when he goes to a higher class he starts new and difficult work, when he leaves school and takes on the responsibilities of manhood, he is venturing into the unknown. God is always stirring us up and preventing us from settling down in our comfortable ways. He is always calling us to a life that is a pilgrimage.

In the afternoon Dr. Gunn addressed the children on the pioneer work in the Northwest of Canada. At night Rev. J. B. Thompson, an old member of the Church and well known to many people in St. John's, took part in the service and was welcomed by the Minister, Rev. B. T. Holden. Dr. Gunn preached from Revelation 21.15 "And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night there." His sermon was listened to with rapt attention as the speaker unfolded his theme, showing how the gates of Heaven were wide open to those who wished to enter.

IRISH TRADE MARK.

Read what a young mother says (original letter on file at office):—

"Dear Sirs,—I enclose a photo of my little girl with her pet plaything, a Gibsol box. She has reason to love Gibsol for it soothed her in the hot summer nights when she could get no rest from teething hives. Gibsol also cured damages on her legs from squatting in the sun and sand and salt water. She has proved that Gibsol is good and perfectly safe to anoint the nose and lips in case of a cold, as she ate half the contents of a new box which I had left a moment unguarded. And there were no after effects."

Dusty Roads.

PEDESTRIANS NEARLY CHOKED.

Pedestrians who attempted to walk to Bowring Park yesterday were nearly choked by the clouds of dust raised by motor vehicles. So dense was the dust, that every person and car that went over the road was in danger as it became a physical impossibility to see for more than a few feet ahead. Some efforts must be made by the Council to either oil or water the Waterford Bridge Road, before a serious accident occurs.
