CANDLEMAS.

"On Candlemas, a February day
"Throw candle and carlesticks away," is an old and very popular rhyme intended to imply that the dark days of winter are passing, while the following proverb in verse is often quoted as an indication of what might be expected, should certain weather conditions prevail on the feast of the purification.

"If Candlemas Day be dry and fair, The half of winter's to come and fair, If Candlemas Day be wet and foul, The half of winter's gone at Yule."

In Germany the peasants have similar popular sayings, two of which we here quote. "The shepherd would rather see the wolf enter his stable on Candlemas Day than the sun," and "The badger peeps out of his hole on Candlemas Day, and when he finds snow, walks abroad; but if he sees the sun shining, he draws back into his hole."

The church festival at Cande-mas was designed in celebration of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the use of candles in the diurnal ceremonies refer to the words of Simeon, who on beholding the divine infant used the expression that He was "a light to lighten the Gentles and to be the Glory of Thy people Israel."

Prior to the sixteenth century, Candlemas Day was celebrated with great religious pomp and ceremony in England, but the reformation toned down many of these observances. The festival is, however, still celebrated in the old church of the Quirinal at Rome, where candles are presented at the altar and blessed by his Holiness the Pope, who afterwards distributes them to the faithful with his own hands, and the clergy in turn hand them out to the people, who, in solemn procession carry them away while lighted. At one time in England, failure to properly observe Candlemas Day was penalised by imprisonment, but in the reign of Edward VI this was declared against. Very few old customs now remain outside the church observances, but in the Hebrides Islands, where old customs live long, an ancient rite still exists. On Candlemas Night the mistress of the house and her servants take a sheaf of oats, and dressing it up in the clothing of a woman, place the image in a basket, and laying a wooden club alongside, leave it on the hearth overnight. This is called the "bride's bed," and before leaving it for the night, the mistress and her servants call loudly three times, "Bride is come Bride is welcome." If, in the morning they find an impression of the club, this is taken as a sign of prosperity for the coming year, but failing such sign, it is an omen to the contrary.

Bishop Mowll's Mission.

RECORD ATTENDANCE LAST EVENING.

Never in the history of St. Thomas's Church, was there such a warm welcome given to any man as has been extended to his Lordship Bishop Mowll; and never such a gathering seen in the "Old Garrison Church" as that which assembled last night, for the Church was filled beyond its seating capacity, while many went away unable to obtain admission.

The Bishop took for his text the 37th and 38th verses of the 1st chapter of St. Luke's Gospel. "The whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; . . . but "the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be (remain) with him." In this chapter, from the 28th to the 38th verse, there was the man possessed of devils; secondly, the law-breakers, —they were law-breakers because they kept pigs which was against the law of that time; thirdly, there was the group of people who tried to do good but failed; i.e., they bound the madman "with chains and fetters" but he broke them. Jesus appeared in the midst of them. He had made the double journey across the Lake of Galilee for one person, and when he arrived, all was changed for that individual. The devils, whose number was legion, went out of him, and the love of Jesus filled his heart, and he besought Him to remain. The law-breakers, however, thought a lot about their wealth, they thought more of their swine than of the Saviour, so they besought him to depart.

Just as Christ appeared in Gadara 1900 years ago, so He now appears here in our midst, for "where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them." No doubt all the groups were represented in the congregation. People who, like the madman, had never felt the presence of Jesus because their evil spirits (evil desires) had controlled their living. Others who, like the second group, loved wealth, or who were so much engaged in pleasure making and pleasure seeking, that they had never opened their hearts to the deep and lasting pleasure, and the rich, soothing influence of the power of Jesus. Then, again, there were those who belonged to the third group, those who had tried and failed. That is they have tried to live good lives, they have tried to bind that evil influence, and have failed, because they have not sought through prayer that power which alone can make them succeed, in fact in their self-sufficiency, they have been too much against good influence. The Bishop told a story of a mother and her son who were in danger. The son endeavored to save her, but she struggled so that he was obliged to let go his hold. Later on as he stood by her grave, he cried—"Mother, I tried to save you, but you would not let me." What a terrible thought, to think that Jesus may have to say to us "I tried to save you, but you would not let me." At the end of the sermon, while the side-men distributed Resolutions Cards (a pledge and memorial of the Bishop's Mission), the Rector sang as a solo "Jesus Saviour, pilot me," and "O Love that will not let me go."

The Bishop concluded the service, with an all too short "intimate" chat after which he pronounced the blessing. It is doubtful whether Bishop Mowll has given addressed a more appreciative audience, and one feels that it is a great privilege to have the opportunity of listening to a man who is so forceful a speaker, and who in a quiet manner, a manner free from emotionalism, commands the earnest attention of a vast congregation. After the service the Bishop addressed the members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood in their chapel in the basement of the Church. He presented that the Brotherhood had invited him to speak to them, as he is himself a member of the Chapter, a fact which may justly give every member pleasure to recall. The members of the Brotherhood were all introduced to the Bishop who received them with a warm greeting and a hand-shake.

Anita's Secret.

Entertainment for Child Welfare Fund.

"Anita's Secret," a delightful play, will be produced this evening at Greenfell Hall by Miss Kathleen Fraser and her class, in aid of the Child Welfare Fund. In addition to the play there will be a musical programme by some of the city's leading talent. There will also be dances by Miss Fraser's pupils and the entire affair will be of exceptional merit and interest.

Miss Mary Halley and Master Harry Milley will provide the accompaniment. As the object, Child Welfare, is a particularly worthy one no doubt the Greenfell Hall will be crowded tonight. The affair commences at 8.30 o'clock.

TEMPERATURE.—The thermometer at Valley Nurseries last night registered 12 degrees. This morning it showed 8 degrees, a fall of four.

Ave Atque Vale.

TO THE RIGHT REVEREND HOWARD MOWLL, D.D., BISHOP COADJUTOR OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN CHINA.

We bid thee Hall, upon whose youthful brow Has pressed in faith the Apostolic hand With grace of Consecration, for that Land On which the Day of Christ is dawning now After long night of waiting; yet thy vow There to fulfil thy Master's high command Thou didst forego a moment, that a grand Message for us might from thy clear lips flow.
Rich blessings on thee from thy God and Ours Descend, the former and the latter showers!
Our prayers shall follow thee in that far clime;
In weariness, in peril, in thy need, Upholding thee through all thy task sublime:
In Jesus' Name we bid thee Speed, Godspeed!

—ROBERT GEAR MacDONALD.

Supreme Court.

BEFORE FULL BENCH.

In the matter of the Companies Act, 1890 and Amendments thereof and in the matter of Bishop & Sons, Ltd.
Mr. Hunt for petitioner moves for an order that the company be wound up by the court and asks for costs.

Howley, K.C., for certain creditors consents.

Mr. L. E. Emerson for certain creditors consents.

It is ordered accordingly. The assets cited in the above case amount to a little over $500,000 and the liabilities $580,000.

G. W. V. A. Luncheon.

PLEASING PRESENTATION MADE.

The Executive of the G. W. V. A. tendered a farewell luncheon and presentation to past President Chester Kearley, ex-R.N.R., at the West End Restaurant yesterday. President A. B. Baird spoke very appreciatively of the work done by Mr.
Kearley who was severing his connection with the G.W.V.A. and said that this organization was extremely fortunate in having such a man to serve it, and that he had in the highest sense deserved their gratitude. Mr.
Baird had much pleasure in seeing the acceptance of Mr. Kearley of a small token of appreciation, and hoped that the old Association would not be forgotten. Mr. Kearley in reply, expressed his sincere appreciation of the newly elected executive. He was sorry he had to resign office, but felt assured that with the wise counsel of the executive, all would be well with the organization. He appreciated the kind gift, but said that he always felt that his reward was ample in knowing that the disabled ex-Servicemen and dependents had benefited from the work done by the G.W.V.A., in which he took a small part. During the afternoon songs and choruses were rendered. Mr. Aubrey Crocker presided at the luncheon.

Portia Due To-Night.

SHIP WILL LAY UP.
S.S. Fortia is due here tonight from the West Coast service. The ship arrived at Argentina and left again during last night. When the Portia arrives she will lay up for a while, it being decided that S.S. Glencoe can handle the West Coast service in the meantime.

An Appreciation of The Press.

Editor Evening Telegram.
—Dear Sir—Am directed to transmit to you the following Resolution which was unanimously passed at the Annual General Meeting of the G.W.V.
A. held on January 23rd:—

"We, the members of the Great War Veterans' Association, in annual General meeting assembled place on record our grateful appreciation of the courtesy extended this Association by the daily newspapers of St. John's during the past year for gratuitous publicity."

Yours faithfully,
GERALD J. WHITTY,
Dominion Secretary.
Feb. 1, 1923.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

FREE STATE TROOPS ACTIVE.

DUBLIN, Feb. 2.
Twenty-four irregulars, believed to be members of Active Service Units, responsible for many recent attacks on National troops in Dublin were captured in an extensive raid, and searches, conducted by Free State troops throughout the city. Most of the prisoners were in possession of arms and ammunition when taken.

A GERMAN LABOR PROTEST.

BERLIN, Jan. 2.
German Labor Units, with a registered membership of twelve millions, male and female, addressed an appeal against the French invasion of Ruhr to congress of United States.

They claim that the French invasion and the Versailles Treaty will force future generations into economic bondage; that German men and women are being evicted from their homes, because they refused to become traitors and slaves to their country.
They have been reduced, they claim, to a nation of chronically hungry infants, wrapped in paper instead of wearing clothes, while men and women are succumbing to physical misery.

WANT INVADERS TO LEAVE.

COLOGNE, Feb. 2.
An understanding has been reached between the Cologne railway directorate and the Inter-Allied Railway Sub-Committee, that from this morning, German railwaymen will begin as soon as Belgian and French armed guards leave the stations, and neither coal nor repair materials will be moved, until they do.

THE DOLLAR IN DIFFICULTIES.

SEATTLE, Feb. 2.
Steamer Bessie Dollar which became disabled in the Pacific on Tuesday, three thousand miles west of "Frisco" is still drifting helplessly without a rudder, and battered by heavy seas, according to a wireless received yesterday by the Merchant's Exchange here.

A SEISMOGRAPH RECORD.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.
Earth tremors described as severe were recorded early to-day at the Georgetown University Seismograph and were estimated to be five thousand two hundred miles from Washington.

ON THE QUI VIVE!

PORTAL, N.D., Feb. 2.
Federal Prohibition Agents from all parts of North Dakota assembled here to-day, anticipating an attempt to rush a large shipment of liquor over the border into Canada from Kentucky distilleries. Between thirty and forty carloads were reported enroute, and agents, last night, were attempting to ascertain the present whereabouts of the shipment.

ANOTHER PLOT UNEARTHED.

MOSCOW, Feb. 2.
Proof that the French are with General Simon Fedura, Ukrainian leader, and that the Russian army still contemplate military intervention in the Ukraine, is alleged to have been unearthed in Odessa, in a discovery by the State Political Police of the new espionage organization.

SHORTAGE OF FOOD.

DUSSLELDORF, Jan. 2.
Ruhr towns and cities are complaining to the French authorities that food supplies are becoming exhausted.

ANTI-FASCISTI.

MOSCOW, Jan. 2.
Communist, Internationalists and Soviet trade unions have proclaimed a world wide war on Fascism, and are asking Italian immigrants abroad to take the lead in every country in demonstrations against this movement.

ICE CUP & SAUCER.—Another small shipment of these Cups and Saucers have just been received at STEELE'S.
Teapots, to match, for 80c each.

Danish Prince

MUST EARN HIS LIVING.
COPENHAGEN.—Prince Aage of Denmark, whose fortune was wiped out in a recent bank failure, has gone to Morocco to earn a living as a major in the French colonial forces.
Just before he departed, during the Christmas holidays, he said he was genuinely sorry that he could not take up an active business career in his own country. He had never enjoyed anything more, he added, than the job he once held for several months in a foreign branch of a well known American firm, neither his employers nor the other employees knowing his real identity. In Denmark Prince Aage was called the American prince. His habits and tastes were similar to those characterizing the citizen of the United States. Most of his intimate friends were Americans, and their mode of life was his. Soon after the war the Prince visited the United States, plunged into society, and adopted many American ways. Recently it was thought desirable to use the Prince in an ambassadorial capacity, but with his fortune gone, he was unable to accept a post paying only a small income. So he has entered military life, having the reputation of being one of the finest soldiers in Denmark. The Prince Aage and his five year old son have gone to live in Italy at the home of the Princess's father, Count Calvi di Bergolo.

Albanian Official Accuses Greeks of Atrocities.

LONDON.—While Greece has been raising pathetic cries to the world against the treatment of her subjects at the hands of the "terrible Turk," she has been practicing the same sort of brutality and unwarranted persecution upon thousands of Albanians within her own borders, according to Mehmed Bey Konitza, the Albanian Minister to London, who has just made a vigorous protest to the British Government on this subject. This protest was made after M. Konitza had received official reports from his government at Tirana stating that the Albanian population of Thessalonica, a province near the island of Corfu, was in terror as a result of atrocities committed by the Greek Civil and Military authorities. Thessalonica, although it was ceded to Greece in 1913 by the Conference of Ambassadors in London, contains nearly 100,000 Al-banians, constituting the great majority of the population, who have been attached to the soil since antiquity.

CRUEL TREATMENT PRACTISED.
When Greek refugees began to pour in from Asia Minor, said M. Konitza, the great problem of finding homes for them became a perplexing one, and the Greeks, it is alleged by the Al-banians, began their campaign of persecution in order to force the Albanian peasants to leave their ancestral soil to make room for incoming refugees. Instances after instance of cruel treatment is recited in the official reports received by M. Konitza.

One of the most disturbing was that which took place late in September when a Greek officer, according to the report, summoned the inhabitants of Raklicki, in the neutral zone, and marched them off to unknown destinations, under the pretext that they were to be searched for arms. The men of this group, the report says, were beaten almost to death and the women were handcuffed and forced to walk barefooted over a specially prepared spiked path. Another instance recited was that of a large number of Albanian Moslems and Christians, who were seized under the accusation of being pro-Bulgarian, placed in a stream up to their necks, forced to remain over four hours, taken out, cruelly thrashed and then exiled. Albania, declared M. Konitza, looked to Great Britain and America to come to the aid of those unfortunate Albanians. Since these things have happened, he said, all the Al-banians in Greece are living in constant terror lest the same treatment be visited upon them.

Mexican Monk Predicts End of World.

MEXICO CITY.—Considerable anxiety is being shown by the Indian population of the village of Miracac, near Mexico City, following the recent declarations of Father Genaro Rivera, a Carmelite monk residing there, that the end of the world will come on December 13, 1924. The monk bases his prediction on highly complex astronomical observations he has been conducting for years, and he asserts that the millennium is a certainty on the date mentioned. Inasmuch as he is a highly respected man of the village, his assertions have caused great excitement among the credulous Indians. Local newspapers have given much prominence to the predictions.
