

The Grace Maternity Hospital

The Grace Maternity Hospital is open to receive patients on the 11th inst. Colonel Cloud has appointed Adjutant Fagner as its matron, and Ensign Payton as the assistant matron and head nurse—these ladies are arriving from Canada on Monday next, and will straightway take up residence at the Hospital. They will have six nurses on the staff.

Adjutant Fagner with Ensign Payton are fully qualified nurses. Adjutant Fagner, who is a Newfoundland-born, has been Superintendent of the "Angeline Maternity Hospital" at St. John, N.B. for some years. During the eighteen months that these nurses have been in training, they have assisted in 391 cases, which is an average of 50 cases each—they have shown themselves reliable and trustworthy in every respect. The results of their examination was most satisfactory, two of them leading with a percentage of more than 90 p.c. The great objective of the Grace Hospital is that young women should be trained for Maternity work, so as to meet a long-felt need, not only in St. John's but in the outports. Applications from young women desiring training as "Maternity Nurses" are being considered, and Colonel Cloud is very desirous that every determination shall take advantage of this institution to train nurses for support work.

Bally Bull-Fight!

Yesterday afternoon a front window of the store of W. J. Clouston received a severe shock when it was butted in by a bold bull. Shortly afterwards the bull was outside throwing the window. The bull, Bill But Mr. Bull, although badly hurt, was not to be killed. The bickering finally ended when Bill brought a bucket of bran and so a bad bit of business abruptly ended beautifully, with the bull bountifully battered, and Bill belligerent.
