Market Committee of the AMERICAN MARKETS

CHICAGO.

Chicago, Aug. II.—Grain traders had only momentary relief today from the seiling pressure which put all markets on the toboggan slide last week. Following an early rally on frost reports from the Northwest, prices began sinking again, and so general was the selling that covering for short accounts could not offset the declines. At the close September wheat was %c off, September corn %c to %c lower, and September oats 1%c down. Provisions were erratic and closed 12%c to 45c lower. Local receipts of wheat were 421 cars, 3 of contract grade; Minnespolis and Duluth reported 177 cars, making a total for the three points of $5% cars, against 673 last week and 649 a year ago. Engineer Rund, accompanied by a detail of soldiers, has gone to Haines to survey the military reservation there, pre-liminary to the location of buildings for a new army post.

The reservation is being enlarged to embrace six square miles, with the apparent object of providing facilities for a large number of soldiers of each branch of the service. Barracks are to be built to accommodate 500 men. Residents of Alaska interpret this action as meaning that President Roosevelt and his advisers purpose to take a firm stand in protecting United States interests in the strip of territory of which Canada has been trying to

POLICEMAN MURDERED

And His Companion Wounded-The Work of Chicago Burglars.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Policeman James Devine, of the West Lake street station, was shot and fatally wounded today at Ashland and Jackson boulevards. He died while being taken to the county hospital. Officer Charles Pennell, who was in the company of Devine, was wounded at the same time, and was taken to the county hospital where his life is despaired of. The men had evidently encountered a band of burglars, and in an effort to arrest them had been shot.

The sleeping policemen in all the stations were roused, and in fifteen minutes every bluecoat in Chicago was seeking for some trace of the murderers. Everyone found on the streets was compelled to give an account of him-self, and late prowlers were arrested. THREATENED BY A VOLCANO
