

SHOT DEAD IN STREETS OF INGERSOLL;
DAVID MAGEE INSTANTLY KILLED BY WOMAN*Mrs. Robert Kyle Shoots in Self-Defense Man Who It Is Said Had Repeatedly Annoyed Her.*Gives Herself Up to Police at Once, Admitting Deed—Career of Dead Man.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, Ont., July 18.—Because he persisted in coming to her home and insulting her with improper proposals, Mrs. Emily Kyle, wife of Robert Kyle, an employee of the Ingersoll Condensing Company, shot and killed David Magee just outside her house at 7:30 this morning. Three shots were fired from her revolver. The first missed, but the others took fatal effect. Magee dropped on the sidewalk after running a few yards, and died a moment later.

Mrs. Kyle immediately walked to police headquarters, half a mile from her home, and gave herself up.

"I've shot a man," was her exclamation as she rushed into Chief Wright's office. "He is now lying dead on the road near my house. I'm sorry, but I had to do it. He would not stay away from my house, and to protect myself I was forced to do it."

The chief promptly placed her under arrest, and accompanied by Dr. Neff, coroner, went to the scene of the tragedy. There they viewed the remains of Magee lying on the sidewalk. He had a bullet in his head and another in the shoulder. Death was practically instantaneous. The body was taken to Barlett's undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. A jury later viewed them and adjourned to meet this evening.

The Dead Man's Career.

The murdered man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Magee, of Toronto, who lived in Ingersoll up to ten years ago. His family are highly respected, but his life was largely a failure. Eight years ago he was sent to Woodstock jail for assaulting Policeman McConnell here, later he was sent to Central Prison, Toronto, and a couple of years ago was arrested for abducting a Miss McIntyre in Toronto. He was captured with her at Detroit and sentenced to a term in prison. A month ago he returned to Ingersoll, and has been here ever since. He was not working and was frequently to be seen around the Kyle home.

Had Threatened Mrs. Kyle.

Robert Kyle, husband of the woman who now stands accused of murder, interviewed, said: "Three weeks ago Magee came to my home. I did not want him around, but seeing he was out of work, I gave him food and drink, and I ordered him away. He used to return while I was at work in the factory. My wife was afraid of him, he would threaten to smash in our windows if she did not let him in the house. For the last three days he had kept the doors locked to keep him out. This morning she opened the doors to wash, and less than fifteen minutes after I left for work Magee appeared. My wife told me she told him to leave. He didn't go, so she got a revolver off the dresser and fired at him as he entered the door. The bullet missed him and he ran out on the walk. My wife went to the door and told him to go on, but instead, he began to return. She fired twice again, and he dropped. I borrowed the revolver last Wednesday from Superintendent Knight, of our factory, that my wife might defend herself. I feared the fellow, as he had been drinking."

Both Kyle and his wife are well thought of here. They have no family. The scene of the tragedy is a neatly-kept frame house on the western outskirts of the town. At noon Mrs. Kyle was removed on a stretcher to a hospital. Both the accused and the murdered man were about 55 years of age.

NEW YORK RIOT RESUMED*Policemen Were Fired Upon by Gangs of Negroes.

New York, July 18.—Rioting between whites and blacks was resumed after midnight this morning in the San Juan Hill district on Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh streets between Amsterdam and West End avenues. Many shots were fired and 20 negroes and one white woman were arrested. Policeman David Roche had his skull fractured. Police reserves were called out.

The trouble started when four policemen passing a saloon in West Sixty-third street were fired at by a mob of 20 negroes who were on the steps. The policemen turned and just then one of the men threw a brick which struck Roche on the head, knocking him senseless. The other three charged with their night sticks and a dash was made into the saloon in which more than 20 negroes were found. The negroes were fired with their revolvers and their fire was returned by the policemen. Then the crowd fled and were pursued to various houses in the block.

The police captured Arthur Moody, who is said to have thrown the brick at Roche, George F. Foster, proprietor of the saloon, and eleven other colored men.

The riot spread to Sixty-first street, where a mob of 20 negroes were on the steps of a saloon and when the police entered shots were fired at them. After a long struggle the police succeeded in arresting four men. The crowd was then dispersed. By that time Captain Conroy arrived with all of the reserves and after the last colored man had been driven to the street the riot seemed to be at an end for the time being.

Three of the prisoners were found to have been shot, but none fatally.

THEY TRAVELED BAREFOOT*Many Italians Went on a Pilgrimage to New York.

New York, July 17.—More than 100,000 Italians today congregated between One Hundred and Fourth and One Hundred and Sixteenth streets, the "Little Italy" of New York, to celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. They came from as far east as Boston and as far west as Pittsburgh. From 20 miles around New York Italians came on foot, many of them barefoot as a still greater penance.

All day was spent in semi-religious festivities. About the colony were scattered altars of wood and tinsel, and on which many of them laid wax reproductions of fingers, limbs, or other parts of the body, which their prayers to the saint would heal. At a street parade the rear end was made up of barefoot women and children carrying candles melting under the combined heat of their own light and the sun. Candles, many of which were expensive importations from Italy, were an important part of the festival and it was estimated that more than seven tons of them were used today.

Hundreds of pilgrims from out of town were forced to live in the streets and 300 patrolmen were detailed to preserve order.

90 IN THE SHADE
AT 2 O'CLOCK TODAY

The heat today is more intense than yesterday.

Today at eight o'clock the thermometer registered 75 degrees in the shade, and at two o'clock it was 90 in the shade at the observatory, against 85 at the warmest time yesterday.

A slight breeze which has been blowing since early morning has somewhat nullified the rays of the sun, but nevertheless the day has been very hard on the aged and on the very young.

Engineer Simmie reports that since yesterday the water in the reservoir at Springfield has gone down over two feet.

BIG STORM AT ST. KITTS*Rain, Hail and Lightning Sweep Across the Peninsula.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 18.—A violent storm struck this section last night. Rain and hail fell in sheets, and the lightning was most vivid. Several places were struck, but no damage was done except to some of the barns, which were fired and destroyed. Haynes' loss will be heavy. It is not thought that the fruit was damaged to any extent.

WILL MARQUETTE HIT BACK*Rumor Says the Shops Will Be Removed From St. Thomas.

Toronto, July 17.—A sensational rumor was current in railway circles here today to the effect that in retaliation for the attempted deportation of their employees a St. Thomas, the Pere Marquette Railway decided to remove their shops from St. Thomas to the American side of the Falls.

THREE MINISTERS
TO LEAVE CABINET*Cartwright, Scott and Fitzpatrick Likely to Retire.*YOUNG BLOOD FOR VACANCIES*Mr. Lemieux May Become Secretary of State and Mr. Campbell Succeeded Sir Richard Cartwright.

Ottawa, July 17.—The long-talked-of changes in the cabinet may be looked for about Sept. 1. They are said to involve the retirement of Mr. Fitzpatrick, Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Scott. Mr. Fitzpatrick will likely succeed Chief Justice Routhier at Quebec, although he could, if so desired, become chief justice of the supreme court. But he and his family prefer to live in Quebec. If Mr. Aylesworth can be persuaded to enter the cabinet he will be the new minister of justice.

For a constituency if he has no objection to the score of distance, Gaspé is at his disposal. Mr. Lemieux was elected to Gaspé as well as Nicolet, and will choose to sit for the latter when the protest filed against his return has been withdrawn. When Mr. Scott goes out Mr. Lemieux will be appointed secretary of state, and either Mr. Hugh Guthrie or Mr. Leighton McCarthy, solicitor-general, Mr. Arch. Campbell's name is freely mentioned as Sir Richard Cartwright's successor. With the adoption of the annuity scheme for ex-cabinet ministers Mr. Scott and Sir Richard Cartwright would receive $5,000 per annum, including their senatorial indemnity.

The forecast of the cabinet changes, to take place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

Mr. Sifton came in shortly afterwards. When the cabinet changes took place in September, made above, gives an illustration of the way in which the historic figures of the formative period of confederation are passing from the scene. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier formed his ministry in 1896 the members were Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Mr. L. H. Davies, Mr. Blair, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Borden, Mr. Fisher, Sir Henry Joly, Senator Scott, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Geoffrion and Mr. Dobell — the two latter without portfolio.

CHOKED TO DEATH*Deadly Encounter Between Inmates of Longue Pointe Asylum.

Montreal, July 17.—An inmate of Longue Pointe Asylum choked another inmate on Saturday evening and death was the result. It happened in the violent ward, Louis Lamarre, an inmate for four years, had a quarrel with another inmate, and the keeper separated them. At the time there was only one keeper, as the other was at supper. Lamarre attacked the keeper, and being a very powerful man, was having the best of it, when another inmate, to save the keeper, took the assailant by the throat. A minute afterwards Lamarre's grasp relaxed and the keeper got up, and when Lamarre did not move sent for Dr. Dion, who found he was dead. An inquest was held this morning, when it came out that Lamarre had been suffering from heart disease. The verdict was that Lamarre had died of apoplexy or heart disease or both. The inmate who choked him was held irresponsible.

Barbers to Pay All Costs
Of the Pavement Action*Admission Made by Plaintiffs in Suit to Upset the Warren Contract.

The taking of evidence in the case of the Richmond street ratepayers, who are seeking to knock out the bitulithic pavement contracts which the city council let to the Warrens some time ago, was concluded this morning.

The plaintiffs in the case—Messrs. E. C. Pratt and Robert McIntyre—were examined by Mr. Meredith, city solicitor, and later by Mr. Judd, who is acting for the ratepayers.

The evidence was material, from the fact that both sides positively that they are opposed to the bitulithic pavement being laid at the present price. Mr. Pratt testified that he had been told the pavement, including the curb and gutter, would not cost more than $20 per yard, and he had signed the petition on this understanding.

The evidence will be sent to Toronto, where it will come before Mr. Justice Teel on Thursday. Argument will then take place.

Offered to Help With Costs.

Mr. Pratt, on being examined, said he was willing to sign the bitulithic pavement. The Barber Company had promised to help him through with the costs. He had been approached on the subject by the Barbers, and it was at their solicitation that he had agreed to bring the action. They had guaranteed to pay all costs. It was hardly likely he would have brought the suit had it not been for the action of the Barber people.

To Mr. Judd, Mr. Pratt said he was asked to sign the bitulithic pavement petition by ex-Ald. Douglass, Mr. Fallah had also asked him to sign it. THE AGENT HAD TOLD HIM THE PAVEMENT WOULD COST $20 A YARD, INCLUDING THE CURB AND GUTTER. He had talked with Mr.

City Engineer Graydon was the first witness examined when the court resumed yesterday afternoon. He testified that he drew the specifications for the pavements and that the Barbers, north and from Horton street to G. T. R. He had received a letter in which there was an inclosure to John Fallah, and which stated that if it was found that the Warren measurements were incorrect, the Warrens (Continued on page 5.)

BALFOUR FEARS
SNAP DIVISION*And Shatters Hopes of Opponents of an Early Dissolution of Parliament.

London, July 18.—Premier Balfour has dissipated the hopes of his opponents for an early dissolution of Parliament. At a meeting of Unionists today, the Premier urged his supporters to be regular in their attendance at the House of Commons, so as to prevent the defeat of the Government as the result of a snap division. He pointed out that a dissolution in August would be inconvenient to the House, and to the country. The Premier said he did not anticipate any trouble in bringing the session to a close during the week ending Aug. 12. Joseph Chamberlain, in a brief speech, said that while he formerly differed with Mr. Balfour in thinking there should be an early dissolution, he now thought there was no good reason why Parliament should be dissolved so soon.

EXPRESS HIT COW*Bossy Derails Engine of C. P. R.
Train Near Milton, Ont.

Milton, July 17.—The engine of the C. P. R. train for London and the west, while passing here this evening, struck a cow and was derailed. Though somewhat jolted, none of the passengers were seriously injured. After striking the animal the train ran along the ties for nearly a hundred yards before being stopped. The accident caused a delay of four hours.

A MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR*Child Found Smothered to Death in Vault Near Blenheim.

Chatham, July 17.—Details of a mysterious affair came from Blenheim today. On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Broadbent, of that town, who is hardly responsible, was sitting on the front doorstep when she missed her daughter Rena. She searched for the child, who has been a cripple from birth, two years ago. Not finding her, she went to the house where she remained until her husband came home at 6 o'clock from work. After a long and unsuccessful search some neighbors went to the closet on the premises, where they found the little thing smothered in 18 inches of the contents. The seat of the closet is 15 inches high, and how the child could have got upon the seat and so fallen in is inexplicable.

Russ Congress Forbidden
Members Want Abdication*A Dispatch From St. Petersburg Say People's Representatives Demand a Regency.

ST. PETERSBURG, JULY 18.—12:05 P.M.—A SENSATIONAL RUMOR IS CURRENT HERE TODAY THAT A LARGE PARTY OF THE ZEMSTVOIST AND DOUMAIST AT MOSCOW ARE IN FAVOR OF THE PROCLAMATION OF THE DEPOSITION OF EMPEROR NICHOLAS,