EXPERT INSPECTORS ONLY

Men Who Look After City Work Must Know Their Business.

Mayor Campbell has given City Engineer Graydon strict orders to see that the men hired by the city as sidewalk, sewer and pavement inspectors, are all experts in the work they are engaged to inspect. In the past it has been the man with the pull who has landed the position, no matter what his qualifications. It can rest assured that the city is out of pocket thousands of dollars through defective work being done on it.

His worship realizes that in order to secure good men the city will be compelled to pay good wages, but he thinks that the city will be amply repaid for its expenditures if it can rest assured that specifications are being carried out to the letter.

It may be that an inspector for the Queen's avenue asphalt pavement will have to be imported, but the city is prepared to go this far if necessary.
