The City and the Farm

Many who are finding that living in the city is too expensive, or competition is too keen, or promotion is too slow, are buying farms in Ontario, and are thus becoming their own employers and laying the foundation of their future independence. Now is the time to buy Ontario farms, while they are cheap, owing in a great measure to the rush to the West of many owners to get more land.

The following are short descriptions of a few of the farms we have for sale:

No. 6267—5½ acres in the Township of London, in the County of Middlesex;
soil black loam, orchard and garden of apples, peaches, cherries, raspberries, currants, gooseberries, grapes, etc., watered by first-class well, 1½-story brick house, 3 bedrooms upstairs, and bathroom, parlor, dining-room, reception room, kitchen downstairs, stone cellar under whole of house, frame barn 22x36, holds two tops of hav and room for two horses and eight cows, box stall in stable chicken kitchen downstairs, stone cellar under whole of house, frame barn 22x36, holds two tons of hay and room for two horses and eight cows, box stall in stable, chicken house 9x20 holding 100 chickens, also pigpen; half mile to school, half mile to three different churches, one mile to London market, a few rods to electric street railway, one mile to Grand Trunk R. R. station. Will exchange for larger farm or for city property.

No. 6254-100 acres in the Township of Howard, in the County of Kent; soil clay and sand loam, all drained by tile and open drains, watered by two wells and never-failing spring creek. 1½-story brick house, heated by furnace, cellar under house, frame bank barn 30x50, stone basement, other outbuildings. Situated half mile to public school, 2½ miles to Ridgetown high school, market and R. R. station. Will exchange for city property or for smaller farm.

No. 6228-100 acres in the Township of Metcalfe, in the County of Middlesex, soil clay and sand loam, 1½-story brick house, frame bank barn, stone foundation, 56x50, other outbuildings, school on farm. One mile to church, five miles to Aprin, two miles to R. R. station, nine miles to Glencoe. Will exchange for smaller farm.

No. 6217-50 acres in the Township of London, in the County of Middlesex: No. 6217—50 acres in the Township of London, in the County of Middlesex; soil clay loam, all drained by tile drains, 1½-story frame house, frame barn 28x40. Situated on gravel road, one mile to public school, one mile to church, 1½ miles to Granton market and R. R. station, seven miles to Lucan. Will exchange for house and lot in London or for cheaper farm.

City of London Property The following are short descriptions of a few of the properties in the city of London which we have for sale: No. 839—Frame cottage and lot 40x145, on Adelaide street, containing hall, 2 clors, kitchen, summer kitchen, 3 bedrooms, 3 closets, gas, water in house, good cellar; $150 down and $10 per month.

No. 1-1½-story store and dwelling, containing store, parlor, dining-room, 2 bedrooms and summer kitchen downstairs, 2 bedrooms upstairs, kitchen 24x10, cement cellar 24x36, frame barn (new) 16x24, some fruit trees. For further list of the properties we have for sale see today's Free Press or send for our catalogue of properties for sale.

WANTED

We want a representative in every township in every county in Ontario to assist us in advertising, selling and exchanging farm, city and town property in Ontario. A farmer who lives close to a railroad station, postoffice and telephone can make a few hundred dollars every year by representing us in his district without losing very much time from his work on his farm.
