THAT IS NEWSLONDON'S LOSING STREAK
SHATTERED BY DEL. CHAPUT

Copper Country Youth Had Guelph Clouters Eating Out of His Glove for Nine Innings, While London Scored Two Runs and Won the Game.

[BY JINX.]

There were two hard working guys over at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon lending a helping hand to Mr. Deneau, in his six-round battle with that persistent prowler of the past few days, Old Man Losing Streak. The two guys were Del. Chaput and D. Chaput, and when they got through, said streak felt like an English bobby after a suffragette riot.

Mr. Chaput, Some Person. Mr. Del. Chaput was the gent who dished up an assortment of slants that had M. Cook's Cunning Clouters looking like a lot of gents tied up in a bag, and Mr. D. Chaput was the gent who, Frank Merriwell like, delivered the timely blow that scored the only two runs that crossed the platter during the pastime. The two runs thus provided, dealt a knock-out blow to Old Losing Streak, and the opinion is that he will stay down and out for a few days at least. Mr. Chaput is some cute little party.

A PUZZLE FOR THE COOKIES. For nine brief and businesslike innings Mr. Cook's collection of pennant-seekers was forced to parade before Mr. Chaput, only to be mowed down like a lot of overgrown weeds. Chaput was in the box mixing a potion that was immediately bitter to the opposing batters, and the best the Leafs could do was garner a couple of one-base clouts which were about as effective as a bunch of wet matches when it came to getting runs. The visitors never appeared dangerous, and the Copper Country puck-chaser retired them in order in five of the nine innings.

SCHUYLER WAS ALSO GOOD. Mr. Schuyler, who answers to the name of "Rube," and looks the part, was on the firing end for the Leafs, and he also pitched some nice ball. He was good enough to win a dozen ordinary games, but the inability of his team-mates to solve Mr. Chaput's slugs put him to the bad. At that the Deneau delegation only managed to get five runs off him, and had it not been for the timely prod of Mr. Chaput in the fifth, the pastime might have dragged itself into extra innings with a different story at the end.

The Ladies Were There. The fact that was Ladies' Day and a large number of the fair fanettes were in the stand, may have had something to do with Mr. Chaput's outburst of pitching ability. The attendance was small for a Friday, but it generally is when the teams decide to play a game. Up until the fifth inning it was a real pitchers' fray, with the odds about even. Witte, the first man up in the opening stanza, was the only one of Mr. Chaput's shoots for a clean single to centre, but from then on until the seventh not another safe hit, nor a semblance of a safe hit, was gleaned from the Frenchman's offering. Mr. Witte arrived at second base in his pilgrimage around the sacks, but he reached there and watched the next three batters die miserably.

A Two-Ply Wallop. For Chaput, in the first, second and third innings, the London team went out in order before the slow but tantalizing pitching of Mr. Schuyler. In the third inning, however, Mr. Chaput combined the pill to deep right for a two-base prod, and he, too, died at the key-stone sack. However, it was the breaking of the ice, and although there was nothing doing in the fourth, the fifth brought a couple of hits and a like number of runs.

Two Runs in the Fifth. Mr. Dunlop came up first and whipped the old pill through the box at a rate that caused Mr. Schuyler's teeth to rattle. Mr. Deneau, our genial manager, was the next man up, and he neatly scuffed the pill to second base. This didn't mean anything, but the fans took hope for Mr. Chaput was coming up. He came, however, Mr. Myers hit a fast one at Mr. Witte, and the latter conveniently bunted it long enough for the two runners to get safe. Then it was Chaput's turn, and he calmly watched two strikes go by until Mr. Myers struck second base. Then he fouled a couple. The next one, however, he poked to right along the foul line, and Mr. Dunlop and Mr. Myers marathoned what slim chance of reaching there safely, but Mr. Wright sort of hesitated in picking up the ball, and the two runs counted. Mr. Chaput raced for second in the meantime, but he was caught about six feet off the bag. He was given quite a hand, not for getting out, but for delivering the timely wallop.

Chaput Walks a Few. There was nothing much to the game after that. The Guelph players would not have reached first base at all if it had not been for sundry passes issued by Mr. Chaput. He handed out two in the second inning, one in the fourth, and in the sixth. A neat double play which Mr. Chaput himself started, nipped all chance for a score in the seventh, and in the eighth he sent a fly to put a kink in any attempt on the part of Mr. Cook's help to score. In the seventh inning, which the Leafs were permitted to get was made by Mr. Brady. It was a neat single to right, but the next moment Mr. Brady was caught at next moment Mr. Brady was caught at second, and a minute after Mr. Behan was also put out at this station. Mr. Dunn was caught at first during a snow.

Matty and Rube Get Hits. Matty Mattoon got a hit in London's second, and Rube Deneau in the seventh, but there was nothing doing on things part of the other batters, and both died on the sacks. In the eighth and ninth Guelph went out in one-two-three order, but the box score gives the statistics of the glad tidings.

Art Shafer, of Giants, Quits
Team and Returns to His Home

[Canadian Press.] New York, May 17.—Arthur Shafer, shortstop of the New York Nationals, failed to report for work yesterday's game with Pittsburgh and the club's officials believe that he has quit the game. According to the players, Shafer had been moored, late, refusing to converse with them, and was also incensed because Manager McGraw last Saturday removed him to the outfield, putting Fletcher in his place.

Had Planned to Leave. Secretary Foster said inquiry since Shafer absented himself showed that the player two weeks ago shipped his automobile back to his home in California. Yesterday was pay day for the Giants, and apparently Shafer waited if possible. Chase would make the White Sox a pennant contender with his marvelous infield play and hitting. Cleveland tried to get Chase, it is said, and so did Detroit, but neither could offer enough to interest Chance apparently.

HAL CHASE TO BE TRADED

Hal Chase is to be traded to an American League club. Which will get him remains to be seen, but the chances are he will go to the White Sox.

Chase doesn't fit into the New York team. Having been manager and possessing the title of the world's greatest first baseman, Hal doesn't take kindly to Frank Chance as manager, especially as Chance insists upon playing first.

The effort to make Chase play second has been a joke. It was unjust to Chase and to the team. On first he is peerless. But Chance believes a manager should play the game. He is a first baseman.

The belief that Chase will go to the White Sox is based upon the fact that it was Coniskey, who engineered the deal that took Chase out of the National and into the American League. This gave Chance a $25,000 job and the Yankees a real manager.

Both Chance and Frank Farrell, owner of the Yankees, are grateful to the Old Roman and prefer to help him

EARLE POWELL
ARRIVES IN CITY

Surprised the London Directors by Reporting to Club Yesterday—Southpaw Twirler Also Reports to Manager Deneau.

[BY JINX.]

Earle Powell, first baseman of the London baseball club during the Bowman regime, and a short time after, reported to the London club yesterday afternoon and caused a mild sensation among the directors and other members of the club. Powell has been on the suspended list since last August, and recently he has been dickered for his release. He made two unsuccessful attempts to obtain his release from the London club through the National Commission, but failing this, he negotiated with the local directors for the purchase of it. A price was named, and the next news that came from Powell was delivered by himself personally yesterday afternoon, when he arrived in the city.

The London club is now facing the problem of what to do with the big first-sacker.

Another pitcher reported to Manager Deneau last evening in the person of Robby Hick, who comes from Lansing, Mich. He was released by the Lansing club yesterday and Manager Deneau grabbed him up. He is a southpaw and has been in the game for a number of years.

Silver Gentry, 2:17 1/2, is expected to bring some fame to John R. Gentry. This silver roan had been dickered for 2:07 1/2, and they think he will be faster than was Jones Gentry.

Cleveland has declared off both of the free-for-all events because of the scarcity of entries.

JOE CONNOLLY

Joe Connolly has won a home in the outfield with the Boston Braves. He was a star in the International League with Montreal, having a batting average of .316 for last season. Clark Griffith secured him for the Washington Nationals, but had so much promising outfield material that he sold him to Boston at the waiver price.

O'TOOLE WAS EASY
FOR GIANT CLOUTERS

Pirates Loose Fielding Also Helped McGraw's Men to Win Yesterday.

Johnny Evers Was Spiked in Fifth Inning—Brooklyn Won a Close Game From St. Louis.

New York, May 16.—Hard hitting by the home team and loose fielding by Pittsburgh gave New York today's game, 7 to 4. O'Toole's offerings were batted freely in the first two innings, and he was hampered by miscellany support. The locals played sensational ball behind Mathewson, who pitched well until the eighth, when the Pirates started the inning with six consecutive hits. Fletcher's playing was the feature of the game. He made the initial bag four times, and once when O'Toole threw wild on his sacrifice bunt, he also stole three bases. Score:

PHILLIES BEAT CUBS. Philadelphia, May 16.—Tony's delivery was easy for Philadelphia today, and the home team defeated Chicago by 10 to 4. Rixey puzzled the visitors until the play was resumed after a ten-minute intermission, caused by rain at the start of the eighth inning. Evers was spiked in the eighth by Knabe, and his place was taken by Phelan, who in three times at bat made a home run, a triple and a sacrifice fly. Evers was out in the eighth, but he was not out in the eighth.

COLTS BLANKED
BY DUTCHMEN

"Kid" Bradshaw Had His Spitter Working Good, and Knotty Lee's Team Could Not Score a Run—A Good Game.

Berlin, May 16.—In the finest game of the season Berlin took the second engagement with Hamilton by a 1 to 0 score today. Both teams put up an impressive exhibition, and divided honors in hitting. It was a pitchers' battle. "Kid" Bradshaw, who worked for the locals, was in line form. His spitter proved a constant source of worry to the opposing batsmen, and nine of them took the count on strike-outs.

Rose pitched good ball for the Colts. He got two of their five hits in the second. Miller drove out a double. White's single sent him to third, and he scored on Strohl's out at first.

C Murphy, of the visitors, was fined $5 by Umpire Daly for throwing the bat about in the ninth frame. Manager Lee has signed up First Baseman Morrissey, released by Berlin yesterday. The score:
