Stratford Indians Play Tigers Here Tomorrow

Stratford, March 2. - Arrangements were completed this afternoon by the management of the Stratford Hockey Club to play the first of the finals of the Senior O.H.A. championship in London Tuesday instead of having Hamilton come here. Fear of soft ice was the reason given for making this change.

The plan is not likely to be very favorably received by the faithful supporters here, who would undoubtedly prefer to see the finals played at home. A block of 1,500 seats has been secured for Stratford fans, and there will be a special train to London Tuesday.
