Spring Cleaning

You are made aware of the necessity for cleansing your blood in the spring by humors, eruptions and other outward signs of impurity.

Or that dull headache, bilious, nauseous, nervous condition and that tired feeling are due to the same causeweak, thin, impure, tired blood. America's Greatest Spring Medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It makes the blood rich and pure, cures scrofula and salt rheum, gives a clear, hearthy complexion, good appetite, sweet sleep, sound health.

Unexpected Adjournment

Crown's Case Against Maltby and Brooks Has Been Completed,

Counsel for the Accused Granted Time to Agree on Defence.

The case of The King vs. Maltby and Brooks, for manslaughter, was continued in the assize court Tuesday before Mr. Justice Martin.

tric Company of Kaslo, had an armature of one of the dynamos burnt out. He took it to Spokane to have it repaired. The shops were all too busy with work from British Columbia mines. At the street railway shops he was told if he street railway shops he was told if he street railway shops he was told if he liked, he could do it himself. He took off his coat and began to strip the armature. Then the wily delegate steps up to him and tells him he must either stop work or leave the country. He protested in vain, said he was doing his own work; but it was of no avail. He had to quit and go home and wait the time it suited the deputation to get it done for him.

Gentlemen, you have been led by a silken thread by the astute American. But I have no doubt you can in a very few days—it is only 25 cents to Seattle—have the satisfaction of seeing your worthy delegates from Seattle, quite enjoying doing the work on the Garonne that you foolishly refused to do. And I have little doubt if you ask their honest opinion, they will tell you that you were too green for anything.

Ice Cleared From Dawson and Steamers Preparing to Leave LeBarge. Steamer Cottage City arrived from Skagway and Alaskan ports early this morning with eighty passengers, including Marshal Shou, who brought down an insane man from Salem, and Sam Blum, a Juneau merchant. Her cargo was small, but 500 barrels of oil. News was brought from Dawson under date of May 14, received at Skagway by wire, that the ice moved away from in front of Dawson on that date and the river was free for ten or fifteen miles down.

Conditions for the Illuminated Water and Street Par-

The celebration, decoration and illumination committee met at the city hall last evening, when Mr. Cuthbert announced that the Fifth Regiment band would give a band concert in the drill hall on Friday evening. Chief Deasy thought that it was not fair to the committee for Bandmaster Finn to hold a concert which would clash with the celebration. The Fifth Regiment band would be well paid during the celebration and this action was very unfair. would be well paid during the celebra-tion and this action was very unfair.

A gaily decorated boat will form part of the Native Sons' float in the big parade.

The Indians are going to joint in the parade and will probably be accompanied by the Kuper Island band.

Already a large number of Indians are arriving by canoe and yesterday many camps were pitched along the inner harbor beaches in front of the Indian reserve. One large camp belongs to the Chemainus Indians, who brought down with them a fine new racing canoe, over forty feet long, which will be used for the first time at the regatta on Friday. They were busily engaged yesterday afternoon in painting the canoe and sand-papering the bottom, in order to make it more speedy. More canoes are expected to-day.

DEDICATED THE CHURCH.

How the Indians of Quamicham Welcomed Bishop Orth.

A little over a year ago the Roman Catholic church at Quamichan was destroyed by fire Rev. Father Van Goethem, in charge of the Indian tribes of that locality, built a new church, which being completed, he called upon His Lordship Bishop Orth to dedicate. Bishop Orth went on the Saturday morning train, and was met at Duncans by a large number of Indians who came from all parts of the reserve in their carriages, buggies and wagons, on horseback and on foot, carrying in their hands banners of various designs, and flags. With this large escort of stalwart aborigines, Bishop Orth was conducted to the new church, where an address was read to him in the name of the white settlers of that locality, who gave valuable assistance in the erection of the church, and the bishop replied in a few chosen words. An Indian then stepped forward, and in the name of all the Indians welcomed the hishop among them, and in Indian fashion spoke very eloquently. The bishop replied through an interpreter. He expressed his perfect satisfaction with the appearance of the Indians, their conduct, progress in agriculture, loyalty, and religion. The Indians of that reserve are with few exceptions, Catholics, and have been so for, more than fifty years. On Sunday the church was dedicated in the presence of at least four hundred Indians and a few white settlers. The church, a handsome building, was dedicated to God and the Invocation of Staann. The architect was Mr. Hooper of this city, and the contractor, Mr. F. J. Sherbourne, also of this city. The bishop expressed every satisfaction regarding its style and construction.
