Jackson, Mich., Jan. 26.—Dr. W. H.
Hale, head of the British Medical Institute of this city, with a branch at Rochester, and other cities, was arrested today by Officer Wm. C. Muir, of Rochester, on a charge of forgery. It is alleged that Hale treated a Rochester man, took a savings bank book as security, and that Hale or a partner obtained money in excess of the lawful charges by forging orders against the savings bank pass book. Hale is out on $300 bond, awaiting an application for requisition papers.

Washington, D.
