Editor World: Your editorial under the above heading in to-day's issue is scarcely fair to the friends of a united British empire who met in Temperance hall on Monday night. You assume that it was a meeting of Irishmen only. This is not correct. Of the six speakers selected to address the meeting only one is an Irishman. Of those who did actually speak three were English, one Scotch, one Irish and one Canadian by birth. The fact is, so far as Canada is concerned, the question at issue is not limited to Irishmen. The fact is, so far as Canada is concerned, the question of the deepest interest to all loyal subjects of the Queen. It is a well-known fact that those Canadians who object to the rule of the "hated Saxon" have for some time past been collecting money for Mr. Parnell, and passing resolutions of an anti-British character. Too long these resolutions have gone forth as the only expressions of Canadian opinion on the question of "home rule." It was high time that loyal British Canadians should state their views definitely and fearlessly on the subject, and surely they have a right to do so, and to send financial aid to the loyal men of Ireland to assist them in their gallant efforts to prevent the dismember.
