Wales' Britannia Beats the New Valkyrie at Gourock.

at Gourock. Gourock, Scotland, July S.-Valkyrie III., Britannia and Ailsa started in the Mud Hook Yacht Club's regatta this morning on the Clyde in a rattling northwesterly wind that promised to hold and give the great single stickers a splendid chance to test their compara-tive capabilities. The course was fifty miles and seven turns. The sea was smooth. The starting gun boomed at 10.30 and the Ailsa dashed across the line with the wind over the starboard quarter at 10.30.16. The Britannia fol-lowed on the Ailsa's weather quarter at game-1.50. Umpire-Hurst.

A Farmer's Daughters Make a Mistake That Poisons 20 Persons.

That Poisons 20 Persons. Washington, Ind., July 3.-The opera-tors of Henry & Clark's big sawmill live in tents in the woods, and their cook bought bread from a farmer named Paul Inglehart. All the seventeen men ate heartily of the bread last night, and at 8 o'clock every man in the camp was seized by cramps. Suspecting poison, an amateur doctor among the loggers sug-gested emetics. Many lives were thus un-doubtedly saved. Inglehart and his two daughters were found barely alive. Doctors from Wash-Presbyterian Distribution Committee.
