Examination Changes.

Toronto Oct. 7.—The education de-partment announce important changes in partment announce important changes in regard to examinations, the most significant being the absolute separation of the departmental board of examiners from the university boards. Heretofore the latter have set the examination papers for the departmental examinations, and there was the same board, consisting chiefly of university men for both nuiversity and university men, for both university and departmental examinations. The departmental examination board in future will consist of men selected from the staffs of the Model and Normal schools. As a natural sequence to the foregoing, the examinations, instead of being known as district and junior and senior teachers' examinations, they will be respectively known hereafter as the entrance examinations into the normal and model schools and into the faculties of education. This change makes clear and definite the pur pose of the examinations.

The Caledon Wreck.

Caledon East, Oct. 7.—Tonight after being in consultation three and a half hours the jury inquiring into the deaths of the Caledon wreck victims, found that the Valedon wreck victims, found that the wreck was caused by the incompetency of Engineer Hodge and Conductor Grimes, who were in charge of the train, materially assisted by the unscientific and inpractical condition of the roadbed at the point known as the tangent at the 33-mile post on the Horseshoe curve.

Farmer Won Prize.

Burlington, Vt., Oct. 4.—W. Smith, a farmer living near Ludlow, drove to Londonderry one day this week to attend the Grange Fair. Arriving on the fair grounds, Smith could find no suitable place to hitch his horse, so he unharnessed the animal and put him in a vacant stall in one of the sheds. When he got ready to return home, Mr. Smith found that the judges, thinking his horse was on exhibition, had awarded a premium and bestowed a red ribbon.

Richard and Chas. Vansickle, former residents of Petrolea, have returned to Canada after an absence of fifteen years

Swindlers Arrested.

New York, Oct. 8.—Ogden W. Coffin 18 years old, a school boy in attendance upon Horace Mann's school, and Lucius Mesmin, aged twenty, clerk for his father's wool importing firm of George Mesmin & Co., were arrested last night, charged with participating in a get-richquick scheme.

The boys had an office at 608 Sixth avenue (not 605 as previously stated), The detectives found they had been con-ducting operations under the assumed name of "Leonard B. Drummond", at-

The postal and police authorities had been receiving many complaints from people in Canada about their getting letters from a man giving this name and

The purport of those letters was that relatives living in this city owning shares of Canadian Pacific stock died, bequeath-ing shares to the Canadian selected. The letters stated that if $5 for attorney's fees were sent to Drummond the stock would

Coffin has confessed. He claims that his mother is a widow in straightened circircumstances, and he needed the money to pay his way through college. He claims that Mesmin originated the scheme and even went to the Canadian border and mailed the letters there beyond the reach of the United States mail authorises

Letters were received by parties all over Ontario, including some in Ingersoll, Lindsay, Toronto, Kingston and Aurora, in each case stating that a deceased relative had died and left them half a dozen or so shares of C. P. R. stock. These would be forwarded on receipt of the $5 fee. All these letters were typewritten, and purported to come from a law office in New York. The Canadian postal authorities were warned of the game and at once communicated with the United States authorities, requesting the appreciation of the same and at once communicated with the United States authorities. States authorities, requesting the apprehension of the parties engaged in what was, on the face of it, an attempt to collect $5 bills without making any return.

The scheme was a clever one, but caaried out on too large a scale and publicity soon
