Y, FEBRUARY 23, 1923

X lines UALITY"

ries 45c

35c 35c 11b. 30c L lb. 55c 60c ılk

is as the Vegetables, len Est.

evator

OATMEAL . OATMEAL ......$3.75 GERM OF WHEAT $1.15 .....$26.00 a ton .....$28.00 a ton INGS $32 ton, $1.65 cwt. FLOUR $40 ton, $2. cwt $1.55 cwt

for Flour or Feed

mong all the various ma-es made, "His Master's e," the Victrola, stands eme. Both machines and ords are the best that modscience can devise. There o other machine that will d the side by side test with Victrola. A model for every e and an unlimited choice ecords.

BROS.

Watford Guide-Advocate WATFORD, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1923

VOLUME XLIX, NO. 9

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

See McLaren's New Wall papers. Wheat $1.10, oats 40c, eggs 34-35c butter 35c. Two aroplanes passed over the two aropianes passed over the town Tuesday morning, flying low. Polly Anna house dresses, $1.25 to $3.75.—A. Brown & Co. The Tennis Club purpose putting on a dance in the Armory on April Sale starts at Swift's today, 36in. Charting 19c sheeting 19c. 2nd.

Signs of Spring-green onions and tomatoes were offered for sale Saturday. best day for doing your best is the one that comes seven times

"Aunt Susan" will give you a mental shake up. March 5th in the Lycuem. Come to the Lyceum to see "Little Sammy Smith growed up"! Monday

"Did you ever see a woman that was tongue-tied?" "No; but I've seen some that ought to be."

Don't tell your wife everything; Let her have the pleasure of finding things out for herself. Have you the Blues? "Aunt Susan's Visit" brings instant relief. Lyceum, March 5th.

Susan's Visit" brings instant relief. Lyceum, March 5th. Just arrived. Ladies' vanity purses. —real leather in browns and greys, ladies size $1.50, childrens size 75c. —J. W. McLaren. The revenue of the Watford post office for the year March 1921, 1922 was $6,212.65. — Morning. service in Trinity church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Adminis-tration of the Holy Communion. — Watford public library offers a means of self-improvement greater than most towns of its size. Are you a member? — Mill ends towelling 19 cents and 29 cents a piece.—Swift's Sale. — Don't miss the play "Aunt Susan's Visit"! under the auspices of the Methodist church in the Lyceum, Monday, March 5th. Admission 35 and 25 cents.

and 25 cents.

All wool 54in. Homespun 98c, A apiendid range of all leading shades im all wool, 54in., Flannels at.—A. Brown & Co.

Service as usual next Sunday at Calvary at 3 p.m. Pastor's subject: "Stephen's witness to his faith in Jesus Christ.". There are 2,577 postoffices in Ontario. 35 new offices were opened and 40 closed during the year end-ing March 31, 1922. Aesop Senior—Thousands of ani-mals are skinned yearly to get furs for women. Aesop Junior—Yes, and thousands of husbands too. Rec. See. Table Damask, all linen, white $1.79, cream $1.49 a yard.—Swift's Nine Day Sale. The average man who does not own a car can testify that friend wife and family were working this auto-suggestion stuff long before Coue was ever heard of.

Work Shirts 69c, 79c and 89c .--Swift's Sale. Mrs. Thos. Malone passed away at ne House of Refuge, Sarnia, on Tuesday. Anyone wanting good axe handles will find them at the Bazaar in the Armory Friday and Saturday. If your storage battery is "dead" are you stalled? Not if you have a the.

Ford, the car with a magneto. Buy yours early.—Ray Morningstar. d23 The public school was closed Fri-day and Monday on account of the furnaces requiring repairing. Basil Richardson has been obliged to close his barber shop for a few days on account of illness, but is now much better. Something to look forward to! Oddfellows' Dance in the Armory, Thursday, March 29th. Particulars later. Reserve the date. The old term "pin money" for the aldies has been superceded by "bridge money," and requires quite a lot more cash. Boys' bloomer pants $1.49, $1.79

Boys' bloomer pants $1.49, $1.79 and $1.99.-Swift's Sale of Nine Days. Miss Raines of Listowel has charge of A. Brown & Co.'s millinery department this season and is now busy preparing sample creations for the Easter openings.

Wm. Cox. will have his tank in town on Friday. Persons wishing water put in their wells can obtain same at $1.50 a tank by notifying same at $1.50 a tank by hothying Reeve Connolly, phone 86. A session of the Watford Division Court will be held in the usual place on Friday, March 2nd at 12.30 o'clock. Judge Judd of London will waride preside. Heavy fine quality 34in. white flannelette 25c. Pure linen heavy towelling 25c, unbleached cottons at 121/2c, 16c, and 18c.—A. Brown & Co. Any girl under 16 is not allowed

Any girl under 16 is not allowed to attend a public dance, and those between 16 and 18 must be chaper-oned. The promoters of the dance are responsible and must pay the penalty. It is a good law and should be rigidly enforced. Elizabeth Edwards, widow of the late John H. Doar, passed away Wed-nesday evening at the home of her nesday evening at the home of her son, aged 76 years, 3 mos., 10 days. son, aged 76 years, 3 mos., 10 days. She had a stroke on Tuesday from which she did not recover. The fun-eral will be held on Saturday after-noon at 1.30 for Wyoming cemetery. A good overall at $1.50, a very good one at $1.90.—A. Brown & Co. All members of Peabody Lodge, No. 99, I.O.O.F., are requested to be present at a social evening in the present at a social evening in the Lodge rooms on Tuesday, March 6th

AULD LANG SYNE TABLE

at The Methodist Bazaar

Many pretty and useful articles thany pretty and userul articles from former members appear on this table. Gifts have been sent from Vancouver, Regina, Winnipeg, To-ronto, Hamilton and from various villages and towns in between. Sever-If your storage battery is "dead" are you stalled? Not if you have a Ford, the car with a magneto. Buy yours early.—Ray Morningstaw. d23 al generous checks have also been re-ceived. Come and look over the display and choose something for your Easter present list.

ship died rather suddenly on Friday night, Feb. 23, aged 40 years, 1 month and 23 days. He was only ill about 24 hours with pneumonia. The Miss Raines of Listowel is now in charge of the A. Brown & Co. Millon Friday evening, March 2nd, at the High School, Professor W. Sherwood Fox of Western University funeral was held on Monday after-noon to Alvinston cemetery, service being conducted by Rev. W. Macwill address the Reading Club, sub-ject "Crete, the Home of Modern Civilization." This lecture will be illustrated, and, in view of the inbeing conducted by Rev. W. Mac-intosh of Napier. The bearers were Arch. Fisher, Arch. Campbell, Thos. Hoy, Ed. Brown, D. McTaggart and C. Hick. The deceased is survived by three brothers and two sisters, Donterest aroused of late in such mat-ters by the discoveries in the tomb ald and Duncan, 8th con., John, Anna and Bella who resided with of Tutankhamen, should prove very interesting. him.

Try Meloids for husky throat, packed in a neat tin box, convenient for vest pocket, 25c. at McLaren's. Despite the mild weather the ice

Tuesday night and a goodly number of dancers and skaters thoroughly from the press and is packed full of information at the disposal of the public regarding the best country on at the Arena was in fairly good con-dition for the moccasin dance on WARWICK

at Swift's.

Butter and eggs taken as cash at Armory Friday and Saturday. The new shirts with collars to

.m. at the Armory Friday and Sat-

Men's new style suits at $18.50,

Archibald McIntyre a well-known and prosperous bachelor living on the eleventh concession of this townery special.-Swift's.

urday.

enjoyed the entertainment provided by the management. As on the prevmatch. See window.—Swift's. George Parker, Sarnia, spent the weekend at his home, Wisbeach. Miss Amy Luckham, Normal school by the management. As on the prev-ious occasion the music given by the talented Petrolea orchestra was much appreciated. Lambton 149 I. O.D.E. provided a cafeteria lunch. Boys' suits, 25 to 35, two pairs bloomers with every suit, $10.00 to $12.00.—Swift's. The Canada Year Book has come from the press and is neared full of London, was home for the weekend. If your storage battery is "dead" are you stalled? Not if you have a Ford, the car with a magneto. Buy yours early.—Ray Morningstar. d23 Mr. N. Sitter, Warden of Lambton V. W. Miller, reeve of Moore and W. E. Parker, reeve of Warwick, are attending the good roads convention in Toronto this week.

earth. A great fund of facts and figures in a condensed form,has been arranged in its 900 pags. It is worth while an addition to any library. What do you know about this Can-Mrs. Neil Luckham, London, who had the misfortune to fall down stairs breaking her arm some weeks ago, is visiting her niece Mrs. W. J. ada of ours? Get 1921 Year Book. Boys' Tweed Suits 25 to 33, $5.99 Vance.

A play "An Old Fashioned Moth-er" is being prepared under the auspices of the Zion Methodist Leato $7.99. Special Sale—Swift's. If you are a Lambton Old Boy living in the far away land—in the Canadian West, in the United States, gue, and will be presented in the near future. Watch for particulars in some distant part of Ontario-drop a line to the Guide-Advocate later. describing conditions of the present winter in your part of the world,

The death occurred on Monday, The death occurred on Monday, Feb. 26, of Robert Campbell, Sr., in his 93rd year, who passed quietly away at the home of his son Robert, lot 15, con. 3, N. E. R., where he had made his home for several years past. The funeral was held on Wed-needew afternoon to Sulvan come relatives who are fellow-readers of tery, Bosanquet, service being held in the Sylvan Methodist church. A well known and much respect-ed old resident of the township in

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE In United States $2.50

GRAND MASTER OF MASONS COMING TO WATFORD Col. W. N. Ponton, K. C., will be

Here on Tuesday, April 3rd. Col. W. N. Ponton, K.C., Toronto, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario, A.F.& A.M., will pay Watford Masons an official visit on Tuesday April 3rd. Officers and other members of the order through-out St. Clair district No. 2, will, however, join with the Watford however, join with the Watford brethren in doing honor to the head of the order which has over 100,000 members in Ontario.

Complete arrangements have not yet been made, but the distinguished visitor, who may be accompanied by other Grand Lodge Officers, will be met at the depot by R. W. Bro. Rich-ard Williamson, district deputy grand yet been made, but the distinguished master and a reception committee. He will be received by a representative committee of Havelock Lodge at the Armory where he will be presented with an address of welcome by district Masons.

After the Grand Master's reply a banquet will be served. The banquet will be arranged on a ticket basis so that any Mason in the district will The new silk and wool neckwear have the opportunity of attending if he so wishes.

It is understood that Col. Ponton will take the opportunity during his visit of bringing his plan of a home for Masonic orphans and aged people to the attention of the assembled members of blue lodges.

DEATH OF MR. AND MRS JOHN LOVELL

Two of the oldest residents of Watford, Mr. and Mrs. John Lovell, passed to the Great Beyond, at their home on Mill street, within five days of each other, Mrs. Lovell on Feb. 21st, and her husband on Feb. 26th. Pneumonia was the cause of death in each case. Mrs. Lovell, whose maiden name

Mary Frances Fitzpatrick, was the eldest daughter of the late James and Catherine Fitzpatrick, and was born in Adelaide Village, there was born in Adelaide Village, there being five girls and four boys in the family. She was married in Adelaide Village in 1867, living in Strathroy until July 1st, 1869, when she and her husband moved to Watford, where they were always highly esteemed residents. Mrs. Lovell's funeral was held on Frday afternoon to Watford genetary. Bay W K to Watford cemetery, Rev. W. K. Hager conducting the service, assisted by Rev. T. A. Steadman. She was in her 78th year. Mr. John Lovell passed on Monday

BROOKE Lunch will be served from 3 to

ARIO UNDERTAKERS IENTS

out your Now ?

supply of many ll our stock is pleased to help

larwick Village

tIt! Supplies Linotype Compositior Certificates are Forms Ruled Forms g in Colors

sing Blotters r Check Books an's Order Books Books

JobDept. WATFORD Many friends will be sorry to learn that Mr. Frank Reid of Toronto has been confined to the house for some time with a fractured rib the result of a fall on the icy pavement.

ment. The radiophone will do more to cultivate a taste for good music than the Chautauqua and people will learn to appreciate things they once sniffed at as "high brow." Notwithstanding the mild winter up to February, this winter will go down in history as one of the cold-est we have had. No such a contin-nous stretch of cold weather has visited us in years.

visited us in years. At the recent examinations held at the Conservatory of Music in Lon-don, Constance Kelly of Watford was successful in securing honor standing in the Primary Examination Cut Flowers—Daffodils and Carn-ations on sale this week-J. W. Mc-Laren

Prof. R. C. Dearle of Western Co. University, London, gave an inter-esting lecture to the Reading club Friday night, his subject being "The Physical Basis of Music." The lec-Physical Basis of Music." The lec-ture was given in the high school, and was largely attended. Refresh-menst were served at the close of the lecture, and a period of social intercourse enjoyed. The lecture was one of the university extension lec-ture course, and the Reading Club is planning to have two other lec-tures: of the series during March, when Dr. Sherwood Fox will lecture on "Crete, the Cradle of Modern Civ ilization", and Fred Landon, M.A., public librarian of London, will lec-ture on "Canadian Authors and Canable church.

ture on "Canadian Authors and Can-adian Literature." honorably acquitted.

ruary.

instead of Monday. Refreshments .--

Rec. See: An intensely appealing story "If You Bilieve II; It's So," with Thos. Meighen, Theodore Roberts and a strong supporting cast will be the picture" attraction at the Lyceum, Thursday, March 8th, Swift's Nine Day Sale starts Fri-day, get your share of the bargains. Geo. Sweet of Coronation, Alta, in renewing for the Guide-Advocate says the winter in that district has been comparatively mild and the weather is now Springlike. There were a few stormy days during Feb-ruary.

Coming to the Lyceum, March 14,

Vincente Blasco Ibanez (author of The Four Horsemen of the Apoco-lypse) presents Rudolph Valentino and Nita Noldi in his new thrilling ten reel romance of Spain "Blood and Sand."

Dress goods 39c and 69c.—Swift's Nine Day Sale.

Anniversary services n the Wat-ford Methodist church on Sunday, March 4th, at 11 and 7 o'clock. Rev. S. W. Dean, Secretary of Finance Board of Generel Conference of the Methodist church will be the preach flu. er and is well worth hearing. Special collection on behalf of Debt Fund. Special Special for March only-Subscrip-tions taken for Designer Magazine at 90c, regular $1.57.-A. Brown &

In the Congregational church on Sunday the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the morning ser-vice, the pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, will preach 5: 11 a.m. The evening service is withdrawn to enthe friends to unite in the Annversary service at the Methodist Claire Kincaid, of London, whose car was alleged to have caused the death of George Linteur in a coldeath of George Entreur in a con-lision on the St. Thomas-Aylmer road last November, faced a charge of manslaughter at the supreme court, St. Thomas, on Wednesday. After a review of the evidence by Justice Masten the defendant was honcerble acquitted the Guide-Advocate would like to hear about. This paper reaches hundreds and hundreds of Old Boys homes every week throughout the

telling of other Lambton Old Boys

or Old Girls in your neighborhood and the hundred and one other things the scores of your friends and world Owing to the unfavorable weather last week we will continue our Gold Fish Sale this week. Come early as they are going rapidly .--- J. W. Mc-Laren.

PERSONAL

Dr. T. J. Foster, Detroit, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. A. Thompson, this week.

Dr C. F. Kenward, Gary, Indiana, and daughter spent the weekend here with his father and mother, Col. and Mrs. Kenward.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Whiting, Marthaville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs W. C. Aylesworth this week. 'Mrs. Margaret Harrower is visit ng Mrs. C. S. Kerton, Princeton. Mr. Leonard Rodgers and bride, of Komoka, visited his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hollingsworth, alzo Mr. and Mrs. Basil Richardson on their honeymoon this week. Mr. Basil Richardson is able to be around again after an attack of the Misses Muriel Dewar, Vera McIntosh and Reta Ogilvie, Wyoming, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Just.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Just. J. W. Kingston and W. G. Wil-loughby, president and manager re-spectively of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co., are in Toronto this week attending the annual meet-ing of the Mutual Underwriters Association for the Province. And has taken a pos-bostion Mr. Luckham declaimed a theft a handsome raise in salary for the Mrs. Luckham and ition in Exeter as miliner and left for that place this week. Miss Alice Mains of London, spent the weekend at Nelson Hawn's. Mr. W. H. Lovell, Champaign, Ill., is here this week on account of the death of his parents.

and three brothers.

the person of Mr. Thomas Hawkins, died very suddenly on Friday, Feb. 3rd, aged 74 years. He leaves to mourn his demise two sons George, who lives in Saskatchewan; Henry on the old homestead; and one daughter, Mrs. Henry Mansfield, with whom he lived. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from his daughter's residence, lot 10, con. 3, to St. Mary's cemetery, service be-ing held at the house and grave by Rev. L. P. Hagger, rector of War-mial on Sunday, Feb. 25th, aged 16 years, 4 months and 2 days. Deceased was a bright and loveable girl, attending the Watford high school when she was taken ill and was a favorite with her fellow students. The funer-al took place from her parents resi-dence, lot 5, con. 5, S.E.R. on Tues-day for St. Jame's cemetery, Brooke, Service being held by the Rev J H service being held by the Rev. J. H. Hosford. Her death is keenly felt by her family and friends. C. F. Luckham, B.S.A., Guelph, supervisor of cost accounts for On-tario, who has been with the depart-position Mr. Luckham declaimed a a handsome raise in salary for the coming year. Mrs. Luckham and daughter Grace will remain with her parents Prof. W. R. and Mrs. Graham at the O.A.C., College Heights, till June 1st, when she will join her husband at St. Williams.

Marjory Weeks, wife of Walter Cavers, died in the Strathroy hospit-al on Saturday, aged 25 years. She is survived by her husband, father to week whereby he sold his 70 acre farm on the Malden-Colchester south townline to Forest Laramie, of Malden, for $10,000.

morning in his 82nd year. The funeral taking place on Wednesday morning the remains being placed beside those of his life-long partner in Watford cemetery. He was born in Cheddar, Somerset county, England, May 1st, 1841, and came to Canada when five years old, the family sett-ling in Oshawa. In the fall of 1854 he came to Brooke township and lived for a time at English Corners, afterwards moving to Strathroy where he learned the trade of carriage builder. He enlisted in the Am-erican army and served throughout the civil war. Two years after his marriage he moved from Strathroy Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Kingscourt, in the loss by death of their eldest daughter, Mabel Helena, who died after a week's illness with influenza on Sunday, Feb. 25th, aged 16 years, 4 months and 2 days. Deceased was

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell are survived by five children and eight grand-children, three sons, William of Champaigne, Ill.; Albert, of Van-couver, B.C., and Frank of Watford, also by two daughters, Miss Anne of Watford, and Mrs. R. C. Cowan of Drumbo, Ont.

HOCKEY

The Tiger hockey team of the 4th line, Warwick, met with defeat at the hands of the hockey team from In-wood in a fast exhibition game in the skating rink, Alvinston, Friday even-ing, the final score being 5 to 0.

The Tigers won the first game of the series in Watford a week ago to the tune of 5 to 3, but the Inwood boys strengthened their line-up and took sweet revenge out of the farm-ers this week. The game was clean and fast. The teams.:

The teams.:--Inwood-goal, Reader; defence, McNally and W. Thompson; centre, McKay; wings, Clarke and C. Thomp-son; subs, McKinlay and Atkins. Fourth Line Tigers-goal, J. Kin-nel; defence, Greer and O. Saunders; centre C. Broce: wings: C. Manders centre, G. Bryce; wings, C. Manders and M. Manders; subs, Toweress and F. Healey.