Through the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Association the farmers of Nova Scotia marketed 110,000 pounds of wool in 1919 as compared with 70,000 pounds in 1918. The whole shipment averaged sixty-five cents per pound.

On the Tablecloth is Where Your Silverware Meets its Waterloo.

Holmes & Edwards super-plate travelled 86 miles over a tablecloth before wearing through. The nearest competitor lasted only 18 miles. Isn't this worth considering when purchasing silverware for your friends or to grace your own table with. The difference in price is a trifling sum of 50cts. per dozen on Teaspoons.
