A Doubtful Compliment

The politeness of the Japanese is proverbial. At a social occasion in Washington a young woman happened to say to an attache of the Japanese embassy:

"In your country you compress the women's feet, do you not?"

"No madam," responded the Japanese. "That is, or rather was, a Chinese custom. In Japan we allow our ladies' feet to grow to their full size."

And then, after a bow, he added in the politest of tones:

"Not that they could ever hope to rival yours, madam."
