

SUNSHINE

Rev. Henri A. Scott,
St. Foy, P. Q.

A large, stylized illustration of a sun rising over a landscape. The sun is a semi-circle on the horizon, with numerous rays of light radiating upwards and outwards. The landscape below the sun is rendered with dense, wavy lines, suggesting a field or a body of water. The overall style is that of a woodcut or engraving.

Vol. IV.

MONTREAL, JUNE, 1899.

No. 6.

BY STILL WATERS.