

The whole thing is complete in 112 pages, and is accompanied by an engraving of the author, and one of Bishop D'H. Gomez.

The price is only Twenty Cents per copy. The 112 pages, in shorthand, are equal to 500 pages of common print in English. It is sufficient to compare with the Old Mimeographed edition, which has 250 pages for the History of the Old Testament alone.

We would have been very glad to issue an illustrated edition
