King Emerson may not be a good Monarch, but he is destined to become a great politician—At present he looks after the College rinks.

He was returning from the Royal City skating rink in prohibited hours. Being of portly build, he failed to escape the eagle eye of the Dean. Mr. Emerson you've been down to the rink? Yes sir, and I've got it in good shape for to-morrow. I wish it were a covered rink—Good night.

G-G-Good n-n-night!

Orser—How long would it take him to make a speech if he had just missed the car?

Mr. Le Drew—He would be speech less.
