

"TIME WILL ROLL THE CLOUDS AWAY."

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words and Music by

HARRY BIRCH.

Moderato.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melody in G major (one sharp) with a tempo marking of 'Moderato'. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The first system of the song features a vocal melody on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The lyrics are: "Time will roll the clouds a-way, Annie, And the sun will shine a-gain..... Tho' All the world seems now so cold, mother, Since they took thy form a-way..... Oh, Oh, I nev-er shall for-get, mother, How you used to watch and pray..... That"

The second system continues the song with the following lyrics: "life it may not all be sun-shine, Neith-er will it all be rain..... Yes, now my heart is near-ly bro-ken, Will the clouds ere roll a-way?..... I we might meet a-gain in Heav-en, When life's clouds should roll a-way..... Yet"

The third system concludes the song with the following lyrics: "just be-fore the day 'tis dark-est, But the light will come a-gain..... No have no one now left to love me, On-ly griev-ing life a-way..... Oh, tho' the sky is dark a-bove me, Still must come a bright-er day..... And"
