TORONTO P.O.

DEMI-LADIES' COLLEGE.—OSHAWA, ONT.

This Institution, thoroughly equipped, opens Sept. 1st, 1885, with a large staff of teachers. A full course in English, French and German, Classics, Music, Fine Arts, the Ornamental branches, with physical training. The site is one of the finest in Canada. The College is large and commodious, with a verandah 112 feet long, 9 feet wide, two stories high, giving an excellent opportunity for out-door exercises in all weather. The building is heated by steam, having coils or radiators in all the rooms. The fruit and vegetables are from our own grounds; plenty of fresh milk from the College dairy. A remarkable record for health. No day pupils admitted. Terms reasonable. Write for calendar, before deciding, to REV. A. H. DEMILLI, President, Oshawa, Ont.

BRAMPTON: HAWTHORNE VILLA.

The Misses Gilbert will (D.V.) re-open their Boarding School for Young Ladies on Sept. 7th, 1885. The accomplishments taught, as well as the plain English Branches. Terms, which begin with date of entrance, made known on application.
