"IN HIS STEPS."—A book for young christians setting out to follow Christ, by J. R. Miller. Author of Week Day Religion, Home Making, &c., is one of the late issues of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and should be in the hands of every young christian. It is a small book, but a most admirable one for beginners in the christian life. We know of scarcely any that we can recommend more heartily. It is filled with directions, simple and practical, for the christian life. It emphasizes the vast importance of beginning well. Sets before the reader the ideal christian life, has a chapter on "Living for God, Consecration" one on "Meeting temptation, conflict," one on "Working for Christ, service." Several chapters on helps, such as, personal prayer, the bible, the church and its services, "One on Growing in ones place, Providence," one on "Preparation for trial." There are few works so simple and so well fitted to aid and direct the beginner in the christian life. The writer has had large experience in christian work and is well fitted to deal with the subject on which he writes. Try it and see for yourselves, and you will not be disappointed. Price 50 cents. Sold by Macgregor & Knight, Halifax.

Asia.

The first bridge ever built across the Jordan has been opened to the public. From remotest times it has only been crossed by means of a ford. This bridge is near the mouth of the river, where it flows into the Dead Sea.

One of the largest single contributions made to the missionary work of the Church last year, if not the largest, came from a Christian Chinaman, who gave $5000 to St. Luke's Hospital in Shanghai.

Judson preached to the Buddhists in Burmah for six years without a convert. Every first Sunday he and his devoted wife would celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and would say at the conclusion, "We are the Church of Jesus in Burmah." Somebody wrote to Mr. Judson, after he had been there five years, to know what were the prospects for the conversion of the heathen. He answered, "As bright as the promise of God."

St. George's Presbyterian church, Edinburgh, has an exceedingly large staff of office bearers. There are 46 elders and 62 deacons.
