

PHONETIC PIONEER.

places the work within the reach of all.—British Whig, (Kingston.)

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—Who can tell the debt society owes to the short-hand writer? Without him the debates in Parliament, and the speeches at all public meetings would be unknown to the world. How marvellous are the productions of these steam-fingered registrars of speech! Take the London Times, for example—a member of Parliament concludes a speech long after midnight—retires to rest, and finds after he has refreshed himself with a few hours rest, a verbatim report of it,—with a flaming commendation, or a merciless castigation, in the shape of a leader—lying on his breakfast table. And long before that hour his name and his words are gone to every corner of the land. This could not be but for the pen of the ready writer.

We would advise all young men to study and practice this art; for though all cannot be professional reporters, yet it will be a vast source of improvement and entertainment to every youth inasmuch as it will soon render him an attentive and close listener, as well as a ready writer, and greatly facilitate his education by enabling him to take down sermons, or lectures, and afterwards read them at his leisure, and make their sentiments his own.

The terms of the Phonetic Pioneer are Twenty-five cents per annum, but great allowances are made to those who take several copies.—Sherbrooke Times.

PHONOGRAPHY.—We have had laid on our table a neat little periodical entitled the "Canadian Phonetic Pioneer," published by Wm. H. Orr, of Oshawa. It is devoted to the advancement of the knowledge of Phonography. Its price is 25 cents per annum, for single copies, three copies for 50 cents. We wish it success; and its appearance we hail as the dawn of better things in the art of writing and spelling.—Ontario Observer.

PHONETIC PIONEER.—This is the title of a neatly printed monthly devoted to the spread of the principles of phonography and the spelling reform. It is published at Oshawa, by W. H. Orr, Esq., and is well worthy of support. Phonography, the subject on which it treats, is essentially necessary to every business man, and we recommend it to all who wish to change their now existing cumbersome mode of writing for one by which they can write with the rapidity of speech.—Morning Star.

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—This is the title of a little paper published at Oshawa, with a view to foster and encourage short-hand writing. The enterprising publisher deserves, and we have no doubt will receive, much credit for his efforts to cultivate an art of so much practical value and usefulness. It is issued monthly at Oshawa, at the low price of 25 cents per annum.—Newmarket New Era.

THE PHONETIC PIONEER is the title of a new monthly sheet published at Oshawa, by Mr. W. H. Orr,—it should be in the hands of every phonographer and learner of the system. The price is only 25 cents per annum for single copies—three copies for 50 cents, and six copies for $1.—Whitby Chronicle.

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—A monthly Journal devoted to the spread of Writing, Printing and Spelling Reform, published by Wm. H. Orr, Oshawa, C. W. This interesting periodical for October has come to hand. It contains some good articles on the pecuniary benefit of Phonography, extracted from the letters of various American Professors. The phonographic alphabet, vowels, consonants and diphthongs, are given in full.—Halton Journal (Milton.)

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—The October number of this valuable sheet has made its appearance. A new feature has been introduced; Phonetic Printing, that is, printing with Phonetic Type, by which any person may learn the useful art of Phonotypy. The publisher of the "Pioneer" deserves great credit for his persevering endeavors to instruct the public. 25 cents a year.—Milbrook Messenger.

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—We have received the fourth number of this interesting little paper published by W. H. Orr, Esq., of the firm of Luke & Orr, Oshawa, C. W. The aim of the Pioneer is to encourage and promote the cause of Phonography, and the Phonetic system of printing. Any person who takes an interest in either of these studies will do well to forward 25 cents to Mr. Orr, which pays for the Pioneer for a year.—Orono Sun.

THE PHONETIC PIONEER.—The fourth number of this valuable and interesting little work, published by Mr. Orr, of Oshawa, is just out. We consider the Pioneer one of the most important additions that has for some time been made to Canadian literature. The proprietor has gone to the expense of purchasing a font of Phonetic type for use in the Pioneer. As we have before intimated we shall be happy to receive subscriptions for the Pioneer, only 25 cents per year—at this office so as to save parties the trouble and expense of sending by mail.—Ontario Times, (Whitby.)

THE PHONETIC PIONEER has just been handed to us. Its appearance should be hailed by the public, it heralds a new era to the reporting and printing fraternity. The publisher of the Pioneer, W. H. Orr, Oshawa, deserves great credit—every one should possess a copy—the cost is only 25 cents per annum.—Kingston Mail.

THE CANADIAN PHONETIC PIONEER.—We learn from the October number of the above periodical, that the publisher, Wm. H. Orr, of Oshawa, has procured a small font of phonetic type, for use in the columns of the "Phonetic Pioneer," the "Oshawa Vindicator," and "Christian Offering," all of which papers are published at the same office. The October number of the Pioneer contains the alphabet, and also introduces the invention of phonotypy, or a method of printing by sound, in the same manner that phonography is a method of writing by sound. We recommend this excellent publication to the notice of the public, its price is only 25 cents per annum.—Beacerton Post.

PHONETIC SHORT-HAND!

THOSE who would like to be able write as fast as they can talk, should turn a portion of the long winter evenings to good account, by acquiring the art of

by means of which from 150 to 200 words per minute can be written, and a vast saving of time thus effected.

Hundreds of Teachers, Clergymen, Doctors, Clerks, Lawyers, Students, and boys and girls have learned Phonography during the past few months, from many of whom we have received beautifully written phonetic short-hand letters expressing their delight with the simplicity, brevity, and power of the art, and the ease with which they mastered it—some seeming to wonder they had not discovered the system for themselves. Several school teachers who have acquired the art, are now teaching it gratuitously to large classes, so great is their appreciation of its benefits to mankind.

Everybody and anybody, who can learn anything, can learn Phonography, without a teacher, by using the "Manual of Phonography," price 75 cts, and the "Phonographic Copy Book," 25 cts. Both books are sent, postage paid, to any part of the British Provinces, for One Dollar.

Address, post-paid,

Wm H. Orr,

Editor of the Oshawa Vindicator and Phonetic Pioneer.
Oshawa, C. W., Nov. 1855.
