THE FIVE STEPS.

A MAN who had committed murder, was tried, found guilty, and condemned to be hung. A few days before his execution, upon the walls of his prison he drew a gallows, with five steps leading up to it.

On the first step he wrote, Disobedience to parents. Solomon says, "The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it (Proverbs xxx. 17);" that is, he shall perish by a violent death, he shall come to a miserable, wretched end.

On the second step he wrote, Sabbath-breaking. God, in His command, said, "Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy." Visit our prisons and jails, and you will find that nine tenths of its inmates have begun their downward course by breaking this command.

On the third step he wrote, Gambling and Drunkenness. The late Dr. Nott, having been a close observer of human events, truly says. "The finished gambler has no heart. He would play at his brother's funeral, he would gamble upon his mother's coffin."

Several years ago a youth was hung for killing his little brother. When on the gallows, the sheriff said "If you have anything to say, speak now, for you have only five minutes to live." The boy, bursting into tears, said, "I have to die. Whisky has done this. It has ruined me. I never was drunk but once, and then I killed my brother. I have only one more word to say, and then I am going to my final Judge. I say it to young men: Never, never, never, touch anything that can intoxicate! And never begin to smoke."
