

THE REPEATER WITH THE SOLID TOP.

FOR A SUMMER COMPANION

Take a Little 22 Calibre Marlin Repeater.

This Rifle uses in one rifle without adjustment the 22 short, 22 long, and 22 long Rifle cartridges.

The 22 long rifle does good shooting at 200 yards. So you have a rifle just right for short-range work, and small game, such as birds, squirrels, etc., and yet if you do want to shoot at rather long range you are all ready. And you need only one Rifle.

The Model 1897 takes apart, as illustrated, and with 24-in. barrel packs in a space 27 1/4 inches long. Just the thing to stow away with your other belongings.

The Model 1892 does not take down, so if you want a 22 calibre at a little lower price and do not care for the Take Down feature get the 1892.

Both of these Models take the 3 different cartridges in one Rifle without adjustment.

No Repeater has ever been made which can be so easily cleaned. No tools necessary to take a Marlin 22 Calibre entirely apart. Made in all styles and grades of finish.
