

DR. CHARLES DICKENS WILLIAMS, Goderich, has returned from Europe, where he has spent eight months in study in the leading hospitals.

PHYSICIANS of Quebec City, who give prescriptions to unlicensed druggists, are being proceeded against by the Quebec Pharmaceutical Association.

DIPHTHERIA seems to be quite prevalent in Ontario. In October the returns from 52 municipalities showed that there were 464 cases with 54 deaths.

THE National Sanatorium Association will establish a dispensary for out-door patients suffering from consumption in the city of Toronto, at an early date.

DR. WM. BAYARD, St. John, N.B., has resigned from the Chairmanship of the Board of Health of New Brunswick, after serving thereon for over forty years.

DR. NEIL MCPHATTER, a native of Puslinch, and formerly a practising physician in Guelph, has been elected vice-president of the Canadian Society, New York City.

THE Medical Health Officer of Montreal, Dr. Laberge, is making strong efforts to have the practice of spitting in public halls, churches, and theatres done away with.

DR. JOHN PHILLIPS, of Welland, recently of Toronto, left a few weeks ago for Cleveland. He goes to the Lakeside Hospital as chief assistant in the medical department.

IN 1902 there were 2,694 deaths in Ontario from consumption, 549 less than for the preceding year. The total deaths for the past six years from consumption were 19,371.

DR. TAIT MCKENZIE, of the Anatomy Department of McGill University, has been appointed Chairman of the Canadian Committee for the St. Louis World's Fair Olympic Games.

DR. ARTHUR GUN, of Durham, has gone to Chicago to take a post-graduate course in medicine and surgery. During his absence his business there will be attended to by Dr. Cochrane.

DR. VON EBERTS, who two years ago succeeded Dr. R. F.