

POMPOUS MEMORIALS TO GERMAN DEAD AT NESLE

The Germans, while desecrating and rifling the graves of French civilians at Nesle, before the great retreat in Picardy, set up pompous memorials to their own dead. For this purpose they used tombstones stolen from French graves