

either by the Postal Administration of origin, by the commanding officer of the naval division or the ship addressed, or by a Consul of the same nationality.

6. Such of the mails in question as are addressed "Aux soins du Consul d....." (Care of the Consul of.....) are delivered at the Consulate indicated. At the request of the Consul they may afterwards be received back into the postal service and redirected to the place of origin or to another address.

7. Mails addressed to a ship of war are regarded as being in transit up to the time of their delivery to the commanding officer of that ship, even when they have been originally addressed to the care of a post office or to a Consul entrusted with the duty of acting as forwarding agent; they are not, therefore, regarded as having arrived at their address so long as they have not been delivered to the ship of war addressed.

Franking Notes. Settlement of Customs Charges, etc.

1. The settlement concerning customs charges, etc., paid out by each Administration on behalf of another is effected by means of special monthly accounts identical with Form C 26 annexed*, which are drawn up by the debtor Administration in the money of the creditor country. The franking notes are entered in alphabetical order of the offices which have advanced the amounts and in numerical order.

2. If the two Administrations concerned also participate in the parcel post service in their mutual relations, they may, in the absence of other arrangements, include in the settlements relating to parcel post franking notes those relating to the letter post.

3. The special account, accompanied by the franking notes, is forwarded to the creditor Administration not later than the end of the month following that to which it relates. A blank account is not drawn up.

4. The checking of the accounts takes place in accordance with the rules fixed by the Detailed Regulations of the Money Order Agreement.

5. The accounts are settled specially. Each Administration may, however, request that these accounts be annexed to the Money Order accounts or to the accounts C P 16 relating to postal parcels or R 5 relating to the Cash on Delivery service.
